

Are utility taxes on churches, schools legal?

By GARY SCHNEIDER
Press-Record Editor

Are Quad-City area governments violating the U.S. Constitution by taxing churches, schools and other tax-exempt organizations through municipal utility taxes?

That is a question being asked by at least one local church which feels that it should not be charged utility taxes.

Granite City has a two percent tax on telephones and water service, Madison assesses a five percent municipal tax on natural gas, electricity, water and telephones and Venice has a three percent tax on all utilities. Pontoon Beach assesses a three percent utility tax on gas, electricity and telephones.

"You could say we are looking into it," said one religious leader who feels utility taxes on churches are unfair.

Granite City's City Attorney John Papa disagrees. "I don't think it is a violation of separation of church and state. The question is whether the state giving churches a tax break is violating the separation. Isn't that government sanctioning the church?" he asked.

Papa says that churches and other not-for-profit organizations are exempt from real estate taxes and certain sales taxes only because those state statutes contain provisions exempting them. The city's utility tax ordinances contain no such exemptions. "I know of no Constitutional exemptions," Papa said.

Violation of church-state separation among arguments

He noted he researched the matter for one church and "told them they did not have much of a case."

The religious leader who says he is studying the matter told the Press-Record that he believes the matter should be studied by the governments themselves. Elimination of the utility tax in some areas could help attract industry, could help schools during their present fiscal problems and could aid churches.

A spokesman for Illinois Power Co. says the utility assesses the taxes according to the various municipal and village ordinances, none of which exempt churches, schools or other organizations. If a city or village should ask that some organizations be removed from the list of those to be taxed, "I imagine we could work something out along that line," he said.

B. J. Davis, superintendent of Granite City School District 9, said he does not feel schools should have to pay utility taxes. "We are sort of an arm of the state government. As such, why collect from us for the state and then give it back to us in (real estate) taxes?"

He noted there have been bills pending in the Illinois Legislature for some time which would exempt schools from paying utility taxes. "They have been battled around before, but not until things got tight on schools did anyone really fight for it," Davis said.

Davis said the legislation does not carry any retroactive provisions which would require cities and villages to repay utility taxes already collected.

One last thought came from Assistant Granite City Attorney Irvin C. Slate Jr. Whether tax-exempt status is a "gift" of government which can be taken away is the main challenge in the Bob Jones University battle, which had its tax-exempt status revoked on charitable contributions because the IRS said it was practicing racial discrimination. The Supreme Court upheld the IRS in the case.

Slate says he believes Granite City's utility taxes are on sound legal ground, but wonders whether non-home rule cities, such as Madison and Venice, have the same powers. "Whether or not you are Home Rule makes a big difference," he says.

Merchants gear for sidewalk sales

Local merchants have planned an array of programs, booths and festivities for the annual surge of sidewalk sales at this weekend at Bellemore Village. Crossroads — Nameoki and the downtown area.

In addition to luring Quad-Citians out, the merchants say they hope to bring shoppers from neighboring communities.

DOWNTOWN MERCHANTS: The downtown sale begins today and ends Saturday with regular shopping hours being followed. Wandering musicians from the Troy Opry Group will stroll downtown streets serenading shoppers.

An antique car show, displaying autos owned by local residents, will be part of the downtown festivities. Booths, including those with food, refreshments and the Pepsi Challenge will be available.

The old State Street Theater, which officially reopens this weekend, will show a free movie, "The Great Muppet Caper" at 1, 3, 5 and 7 p.m. today. Fifty free tickets will be awarded during a drawing for the last play to be presented in the Washington Theater. The Summer Stage Theater Group will present the "Music Man" June 29 and 30.

Project Help, a volunteer food distribution program assisting the unemployed, will have a bake sale downtown during the sale days.

Donations have been solicited from union locals, churches through Church Women United, and the unemployed. Proceeds from the three-day effort will be added to funds contributed by labor unions, companies and individuals throughout the community and will help to continue to supply three days of groceries each month to families whose unemployment benefits have run out.

The leaders of Project Help are asking that the public participate by the donation or purchase of baked goods during the sidewalk sales days. An informational leaflet about the program will also be available.

BELLEMORE VILLAGE: The sale will be Friday, 9 a.m. to 9 p.m., and Saturday, 9 a.m. to 6 p.m., with the theme "Fun in the Sun."

In addition to sale prices, Bellemore merchants have planned an arts and crafts fair in the arcade.

About 20 booths will be set up, including handmade items and bakery goods. The booths will display the talents of many local residents, a spokesman said.

CROSSROADS — NAMEOKI: The sale will be Thursday through Saturday during regular business hours with an array of festivities planned.

One of the highlights will be the Nameoki-Crossroads Association 10,000 Meter Run on Saturday. Additional information, including registration details, is provided in today's sports section.

Runners will begin and end at Schmuck's, with prizes awarded to top finishers.

Live entertainment will play in front of Nash's Lounge with refreshment and soft drink booths available.

The Hot Rod Club will have cars on display and there will be a karate demonstration.

State investigating EOC weatherization

By GARY SCHNEIDER

The Illinois Department of Commerce and Community Affairs has pledged to initiate an investigation into the Madison County Economic Opportunities Commission (EOC) handling of the Weatherization Program, which has been "shut down due to serious technical problems," Thornton Ridinger, chief of the Office of Energy and Community Service for the IDCCA, told the Press-Record Tuesday.

"If they don't get their act together in the next quarter (three months), we will find another agency to operate it (the Weatherization Program) in Madison County," he stated. The program provides free insulation, storm windows and other weatherization materials and has them installed in the homes of low-income residents throughout the county.

Ridinger said "important, not minor, incidents" have been alleged, including the violation of bidding procedures, inadequate work on some homes and other problems. He called them "more technical procedures, more in line with incompetence of the program and not of personal gain. We are not alleging that anyone gained personally from any of this."

However, Ridinger said, the department also is investigating allegations made by an unidentified caller Monday night who listed numerous allegations, including weatherizing a home in St. (Continued on Page 5)

Armenian holy leader to visit

His Holiness Karekin II, Catholicos of the Holy See of Cilicia of Antelias, Lebanon, will conduct services at St. Gregory the Illuminator Armenian Apostolic Church, 1732 Maple St., on Wednesday, June 29.

Karekin II is the spiritual leader of 350,000 Armenians in this country and in Canada. His visit here will be part of a two-day visit to the St. Louis area.

His Holiness arrived in this country on June 2 and is currently visiting church communities in the East.

In observance of the visit, Mayor Paul Schuler signed a proclamation, approved by the city council Tuesday, proclaiming June 29 as Armenian Church Day in Granite City for Catholicos Karekin II and St. Gregory the Illuminator Church.

Karekin II will be greeted at St. Louis International Airport about 11 a.m. Wednesday. He is expected to arrive by motorcade at approximately 11:45 a.m. at St. Gregory. There, he will conduct Hrahsapar Services at noon.

Karekin II will conduct a 2 p.m. news conference at Wittenburg Hall on the Washington University campus in St. Louis the same day. A formal pontifical banquet will begin at 8 p.m. Wednesday in the Cedar Room in the Marquette Church Hall of St. Raymond, St. Louis. Cost is $20. The public is being invited.

At the conclusion of his visit, he will go to Vancouver, Canada, to attend the Sixth General Assembly of the World Council of Churches. His Holiness is vice moderator of the council's Central Committee.

The pontifical entourage here will include: Archbishop Mesrob Ashjian, primate of the Eastern Prelacy of the Armenian Apostolic Church, New York City; Archbishop Sumpad Lapadjan, former primate of the Western Prelacy of the Armenian Apostolic Church, Los Angeles, Calif.

The Very Rev. Arshaveer Kapojian of Antelias, Lebanon; Nerses Chitjian, lay representative, Chicago, and Percy Sarkisian, lay representative, Detroit.

The Rev. Khoren Habeshian, pastor of St. Gregory, will host the local visit. Karekin II was born Nishan Sarkisian in an Armenian village in northern Syria. He received his primary education in the village school and in 1946 was admitted to the Cilician Seminary, Lebanon, where he was ordained a deacon in 1946.

He was ordained a monk and renamed Rev. Karekin. He became a bishop in 1964 and was nominated Chancellor of the Cilician Catholicate and Archbishop in 1973.

He served United States and Canadian communities for nearly four years. With the death of Khoren I last February, Karekin II assumed the full duties of Catholicos of the See of Cilicia. "His Holiness has displayed an active interest not only in Armenian church and national affairs but in the ecumenical movement as well," according to a church spokesman.

He participated in the 1982 Middle Eastern Christian Youth Conference in Beirut and the 1975 Fifth Assembly of the World Council of Churches in Nairobi.

He is fluent in both English and French, as well as Armenian, and has written many essays, articles and books.

Drop SIUE basketball

By ALAN L. GERSTENECKER
Sports Editor
of the Press-Record

Calling it the "best option" open to Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, Dr. James R. Buck, director of development and public affairs at SIUE and acting athletic director, announced Monday that the university will cancel the men's intercollegiate basketball program for the coming 1983-84 season.

During a press conference Tuesday, Buck said, "considering all the elements of the situation, the decision to cancel the coming season is the university's best option." Or, as someone else commented, "the lesser of all the evils."

At best, Buck said, if the season were attempted, no more than six games would be played.

NO CAGE SQUAD. That was the announcement Dr. James R. Buck, (right) director of development and public affairs at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville made earlier this week. During an informational meeting Tuesday, Buck said the decision to cancel the 1983-84 basketball season culminated from scheduling complications which resulted from the university's May 13 decision not to seek NCAA Division I status for the 1983-84 academic year. To Dr. Buck's right is Steve Weller, SIUE's sports information director.

Madison board honors John Lewis

By PAT HAY LUTZ
for the Press-Record

After reading a nomination letter from Daniel Kostencik, principal of Madison High School, the Madison School Board agreed last week to give John Lewis, a 1983 graduate, the board's annual award recognizing outstanding excellence.

Superintendent John Palchick read the letter, which commended Lewis as an "outstanding track athlete in the field events of the long jump, triple jump, and high jump." Palchick also commented on the youth's athletic achievements, saying, "He broke not only our school records, but placed highly in state and Midwest competitions. I think he definitely deserves this award."

Board members plan to give the award to Lewis at the next board meeting.

In other business, the board received a report from the Illinois Board of Education which responded to their request to test for asbestos in the Louis Baer Elementary School.

The report indicated that although asbestos was present, the condition of the ceilings was good and recommended that the ceilings be "painted satisfactorily with a good grade of latex paint."

According to the report, the paint will seal the asbestos permanently, since the asbestos is not "powdering" from the ceiling and the ceiling surface was smooth.

An evaluation of the Unmarried Teenager Aftercare Service (UTAS) was presented and indicated that the program was successful.

The program, structured for the high-school-aged single parent, is sponsored by the Children's Home and Aid Society of Illinois to provide "permanent stable homes for children." According to the child welfare agency, the increase in teenage pregnancies and subsequent parenting warrants such a program.

The eight participants studied such topics as problem-solving, parenting skills, child development, management, self-esteem and job-career planning.

CHASI praised the board's cooperation with the program, and requested future programs focusing on prenatal counseling and parenting skills be considered.

TO REPLACE WINDOW

A motorist impatient to be served at the Lone Acres tavern drive-through area, 20th Street and Edwardsville road, broke an 18x16-inch window of the building last week. Prosecution was dropped when he agreed to pay to replace it.

Name sought for new film theater

A $100 prize will be awarded the person who suggests the new name for a movie theater opening Friday at 1917 State St., featuring $1 admission. Owner-manager Emily Rees said ballots for naming the theater are available at the address on State.

The theater's first presentation will be "Savannah Smiles."

A former manager for the Mid-America theater chain, she is opening the $1-admission-concept theater in conjunction with the H.A. "Pat" Moseley family, which introduced dollar tickets to the St. Louis area in 1978 at the St. John Theater.

Operating company for the movie house is Gamma Theater Co., owned by Emily Rees and Mr. and Mrs. Moseley and their sons, Harman and John. The senior Moseleys opened the St. Andrews Cinema as a one-dollar theater in February.

John Moseley runs the dollar ticket price Granada Theater in South St. Louis, and Harman Moseley is in charge of the twin-cinema, one-dollar ticket Ritz Theater on South Grand in St. Louis.

Refurbishing of the 600-seat theater in Granite City, including a new air conditioning plant, redecorated lobby and theater area, a new screen which will be the largest in the Granite City area, a new concession stand and the finest modern projection equipment will be completed by the opening night June 24.

"We have reclaimed much of the charm of the original theater by removing additions made by non-movie owners," the new owner said. Randall Spurr and Associates were consulting architects.

Although it was built in the 1940s, another theater, the Rialto, occupied the site earlier. The current building, originally called the City Theater, has been used as a church and for a time was a rock music show house called the State.

By coincidence, the building is the place where Pat Moseley held his first full-time job when he came to the St. Louis metropolitan area in 1949. He was a movie machine operator.

Moseley has been associated with the metropolitan motion picture industry as a projectionist, in equipment sales and as an owner since that time.

Miss Rees, daughter of Francis and Louise Rees, has lived most of her life in the Granite City area and received her theater training "in the ranks." She managed theaters for the Mid-America chain, starting as a concession girl and working her way up.

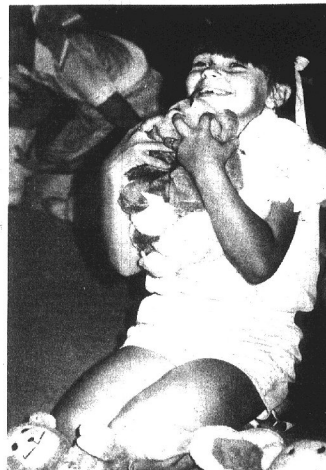

The to-be-named theater will be a family theater, she pointed out. "In keeping with the one-dollar price concept pioneered by the Moseleys, we know the price will permit whole families to attend the way up."

"We also will attract teenagers because they can afford to bring a date. And we will attract the older generation who grew up with movies as entertainment and really love to be able to afford to go out to a show. We definitely will have no X-rated pictures."

Plans call for matinees on Saturdays, Sundays and Wednesdays with approximate times of 1, 3, 5, 7 and 9, with two shows at approximately 1 and 3 p.m. on Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays.

Ample parking surrounds the theater building, which is in the same block as the Granite City Steel building. The movie house will serve a large segment of Metro-East, with a marketing area extending south to Belleville, north to Alton and, since it is near Interstate 270, west into the northern part of St. Louis County, it was noted.

Persons wishing to enter the $100 name contest may obtain ballots at the theater building, 1917 State St., phone 451-1717.

COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT EMERGENCY JOBS BILL PROPOSED PROJECTS - 1983

Madison County, acting by and through its Department of Community Development, has developed its Emergency Jobs Bill proposed statement of Community Development Objectives and Projected Use of Funds. This document contains proposed projects for all units of local governments participating in the Community Development Block Grant Emergency Jobs Bill Program administered by Madison County Community Development. The funding to be received on or after August 1, 1983 shall total $1,194,000.

All affected citizens may submit comments regarding the proposed projects. Projects proposed for funding include the following:

Granite City - Sanitary Sewer Replacement

Venice Township - Eagle Park Surface Drainage

Madison - Highland/McCambridge Street Improvements

Madison - Industrial Park

Venice - Lees Park Improvements

Venice Township - Benjamin Addition Street Improvements

Madison County - Removal of Architectural Barriers

The proposed statement is available for public comment and review and can be obtained from the Madison County Community Development Office, 130 Hillsboro Avenue, Edwardsville, Illinois 62025 (618) 692-4386 between the hours of 9:00 A.M. and 5:00 P.M. Comments will be received until 5:00 P.M. on Friday, June 24, 1983.

FREE CPR CLASS AT SEMC NEXT TUESDAY

Each year, heart attacks account for more than 350,000 deaths which occur before the victim reaches the hospital. It doesn't have to be that way. Cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) can make the difference, and anyone can learn it.

Free CPR classes will be conducted at St. Elizabeth Medical Center on Tuesday, June 28, from 6 p.m. to 10 p.m. in Pascual Hall. For more information or to make reservations, interested persons may call 798-3169.

Madison County gets rid of 3 parks

By NANCY WEIL
of the Press-Record

Louis Whitsell Park, the county park just east of Route 111 and north of Route 162, will be sold by Madison County to VFW Post 1245 of Pontoon Beach, despite the objections of a county board member who says the land is worth more than the $200 selling price.

The county board last week voted to transfer control or ownership of three parks. Two of the resolutions passed without question, but Frank Vivod of Collinsville objected to the Whitsell Park plan.

Whitsell Park is the only park of the three to be sold outright. Wood River Township will take control of Kutter Park, and Mitchell Park, which was leased to the county, will be returned to the Metro-East Sanitary District.

"Can you tell me anywhere that you can buy land for $20 an acre? It's worth more than that," Vivod said of 10-acre Whitsell Park.

Post 1245 was the only bidder for the park, which costs the county about $4,000 a year to maintain.

The county has been trying to get rid of eight parks because of rising maintenance costs. In 1982, maintenance costs at the parks were more than $22,000 and county officials, already faced with a grim economic situation, decided to transfer ownership or control of the properties.

Vivod suggested that the county lease the park to Post 1245 and review the lease agreement later. He said it turned out that the land is worth more money, the county could then consider selling the park for more than the $200 bid, he said. "If it's worth something in 50 years, it will still be our land," he said.

Donald C. Rea of Pontoon Beach said that the land is "a swamp" with only four acres suitable as a park. The remaining acreage has been dug into canals to drain a swamp behind the Quiet Valley Subdivision, he said.

"But Vivod continued to object, arguing that much of what became prime land in the Granite City area was once swamp land. He cited Nameoki Village Shopping Center as an example. "I used to fish there," he said.

"You don't know what's going to happen," he said. Rea said that nothing can be built on the land because it is under water much of the time. Post 1245 has a plan to maintain the usable land as a park and playground equipment will be moved there, Rea said.

County officials said they do not want buildings to be placed on the land, but want it to be used as a public park.

"The reason the VFW bid at all was because they were afraid somebody would put buildings on it," Herbert "Junior" Milton told the board. Milton is chairman of the Buildings Committee which, along with the Central Services Committee, presented the Whitsell Park resolution to the county board.

Other county board members said they just wanted to get rid of the land, although they generally agreed it should be used as a park.

"As far as I'm concerned we can give it to the VFW. They risked their lives to fight on foreign soil to protect the taxpayers' money. They deserve it for nothing," said Homer Henke, of Moro.

Some deeds contain clauses specifying that the lands must continue to be used for recreational purposes. Mitchell Park, located northwest of Route 203 on Maryville Road, has cost the county more than $2,700 a year to maintain. The resolution returning it to MESD says that the county hopes the district and the Mitchell Athletic Club "will be able to work out an arrangement to ensure the continued use of this property for recreational and other public uses."

It is possible that MESD and the Mitchell Fire Department will agree to build a fire station there, county board members said. Kutter Park also will be used for recreational purposes. It has cost the county almost $5,800 yearly to maintain.

The Buildings Committee still is considering agreements to get rid of Quercus Grove and Moro parks and the nature trail between Edwardsville and Granite City. The six-mile trail runs through Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

RCGA endorses I-255 project

The St. Louis Regional Commerce and Growth Association's board of directors has called for construction of the Interstate 255 extension between Collinsville and Interstate 270 — a project presently stalled by a federal court suit filed by 14 landowners.

The 5.5-mile section, six lanes wide, is the missing link in a circumferential freeway around the St. Louis metropolitan area, the RCGA said. The U.S. Department of Transportation has declared the link part of the interstate system and, thus, eligible for 90 percent federal construction funding.

The state of Illinois has authorized $3 million for purchase of right-of-way.

The RCGA board first endorsed construction of a circumferential freeway in 1976. The organization's Surface Transportation Committee recommended Thursday's board action.

A multi-lane supplemental freeway, SF 413, is proposed to continue north from I-270 skirting Edwardsville, Riana, Wood River, Bethalto and Alton to north of Godfrey. However, authorization for that route is dependent on construction of the link between Collinsville and I-270.

"Our board believes the construction of the I-255 extension and SF 413 are absolutely necessary for the proper development of Madison and St. Clair Counties," James M. O'Flynn, RCGA president, said after Thursday's board meeting.

"The highways will influence nearly every facet of the development of the eastern part of the metropolitan region. They will encourage communications among the communities there, facilitate commerce and save time and money now spent on transportation."

"The board believes strongly that the lawsuit ought to be disposed of quickly so that the Illinois Department of Transportation can proceed with the I-255 link," O'Flynn said.

APPOINTMENTS BY COUNTY BOARD HEADS

Appointment of Metro-East Sanitary District trustees is done by the county board chairmen of Madison and St. Clair Counties, not by the county chairmen of the Democratic and Republican parties, Christ Costoff, Madison County Democratic chairman, points out.

He says a forum letter Monday saying that the trustees are appointed by "some political county chairman," was misread by some, who felt it was aimed at him.

ZONING HEARING SET

The Madison County Zoning Board of Appeals will conduct an on-site public zoning hearing at 10 a.m. Wednesday, June 29, at 3321 Amherst, State Park Place, in Nameoki Township, where Darlene L. Hayes is requesting a special use permit to continue the placement of a mobile home for as long as possible. The property is zoned R-4 for residential use.

Arlin Davis sentence is reduced

By ED GURNEY

The Illinois Fifth District Appellate Court has reduced from 10 years to three the sentence given Arlin Davis in connection with a fatal auto wreck on State Aid 35 near Collinsville on New Year's Eve 1979.

The court ruled that Davis had been incorrectly given consecutive sentences on four of the five charges on which he was convicted. The sentences must be served at the same time because the crimes were part of a single course of conduct, the appellate judges ruled.

Davis, 33, of Holiday Mobile Home Court, was convicted in November, 1980, of three counts of reckless homicide, one count of driving while intoxicated and one count of driving with a suspended or revoked license.

The appellate court previously upheld the convictions themselves. "I'm just not very happy with the decision (to reduce the sentence), but I'm not happy with the law in general," said Assistant Madison County State's Attorney Keith Jensen, who prosecuted Davis.

Jensen is among those who believe the maximum penalty of three years in prison for a reckless homicide conviction is too lenient.

"It's kind of disheartening to think that these people got killed and each one of them was worth only one year," Jensen said. Killed in the 1979 wreck were Granite City residents Larry Lehman, 42, and daughters Nicole Lehman, 5, and Stacy Lehman, 1. Lehman's wife, Beverly, and Davis were seriously injured in the head-on collision.

Davis had originally been sentenced by Associate Judge John Day in March, 1981, to three years in prison on one of the reckless homicide convictions. Davis appealed, and in March, 1982, the appellate court affirmed the convictions.

However, the appellate court sent the case back to Judge Day for resentencing on the remaining four counts.

Prosecutors saw a chance to gain consecutive sentences, and that is what happened last July.

At the resentencing, Day ordered Davis to serve three years on each of the reckless homicide convictions, one year on the driving while intoxicated charge and one year on the driving with a revoked or suspended license charge. The judge ordered that the last sentence be served at the same time as the others, making the overall sentence 10 years. Jensen said that unless the appellate court decision is appealed, the Madison County circuit court will order Davis to prison after it receives a mandate from the appellate court.

Davis' attorney, Jim Wallis, said he doubts whether the convictions will be appealed further. Davis is expected to make a decision on that in the next few days, Wallis said.

Davis at his original sentencing hearing had 100 days taken off his sentence for the two months he spent in Scott Air Force Base Hospital and one month he was in Madison County Jail after the accident.

Davis last year served three months in prison on a separate drunk driving conviction in connection with a November, 1979, incident in Collinsville.

Bus fund ambushed in Missouri

If only Missouri officials were as supportive of the Bi-State Development Agency and its Transit System as are Illinois governmental leaders!

Quad-Cityans recall occasions several years ago when St. Louis' city and county would withhold sales tax receipts that were intended to help meet Bi-State bus costs. City political pressure later was applied to shake up the agency's administrative staff. Now, the sales tax is being "cut off at the pass" by the Missouri legislature.

It is said that some legislators are attempting to punish the transit program for controversial cost control efforts. Whatever the reason, adjournment took place June 15 at Jefferson City without the half-cent per dollar tax being renewed.

Mannell De La O, agency executive director, says Bi-State will have to shut down three-fourths of its Missouri routes after Dec. 31 unless there is remedial action at a special legislative session. No such session is scheduled but the governor is considering calling one.

The Senate voted a two-year extension of the tax but the House trimmed this to one year. Senators did not agree with the change and returned the bill to representatives, who let time run out.

As De La O sees it, "It is ridiculous to have to go year to year, not knowing if we are going to have funds." He regards a two-year extension as the minimum needed if the system is to make soundly-based plans for service improvements.

Evidently, with friends like Charles Troupe, the agency needs no enemies. When the legislature is not in session, he drives a Bi-State bus. When it is in session, he lobbies fellow state representatives to curtail bus funds. In his spare time, he accuses Bi-State of using Missouri revenue to pay some costs associated with the Bi-State Parks Airport in Illinois.

1. multiplier is better than 2.22

They have not exactly been given a standing ovation by taxpayers, but the Madison County real estate assessment review board and supervisor did achieve a considerable accomplishment this spring—a multiplier of one (no multiplier) for tax rates on a year against individual assessments to determine tax bills, so the amount of one's valuation is far from a trivial matter.

J. Thomas Johnson, director of the Illinois Department of Revenue, tentatively assigned an assessed valuation multiplier of 1.0564 to Madison County for the 1982 tax year (1983 collection) but revised it to 1.0000 due to the board's subsequent equalization action.

Director Johnson did not have nearly as good an announcement for neighboring counties.

The final county assessment multipliers include 1.8659 in Jersey, 2.1587 in Montgomery and 2.2250 in St. Clair.

—Developing a successful family enterprise into the largest brewing organization in the world, contributing to this area's economic welfare.

—Purchasing St. Louis recreational and sporting assets.

—Heading Anheuser-Busch from 1946 to 1975, including 1953, when the company bought the Cardinals. The team since then has captured four National League pennants and three world championships.

—Securing resources for construction of Busch stadium, rekindling the city's downtown redevelopment.

—Honoring his family's century-long commitment and his own pledge to do everything in his power to make St. Louis a better place.

Champion citizen being honored

Just as the local community has singled out many of its citizens for special recognition, our neighbor across the Mississippi presents the St. Louis Award. The golden anniversary recipient tomorrow will be August A. Busch Jr., now in his ninth decade, defined by the award as the city's number one citizen.

We join in the salute, noting among other things that he is chairman and president of the St. Louis Cardinals, 1982 world baseball champions and leading the National League East a third of the way through the current season. The citation credits him with:

—Exemplifying the highest ideals of the award, established by David L. Wolf a half-century ago.

—Giving leadership and support to the region's most important civic, cultural, educational and philanthropic efforts.

Spare the Rape Crisis Center

Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, like all other public entities, is faced with making some crucial decisions about budget cuts. What departments and areas to cut, which not to cut and generally how to decrease overall needed spending are considerations. Tuesday, employees at the Rape & Sexual Abuse Care Center learned that their budget would be cut by about $9,000, and probably more. A request for a larger building also will be denied.

The center provides an invaluable service to victims of rape and sexual abuse and law enforcement and service-oriented agencies.

Since the reorganization of the SIUE administrative structure, the university seems to have adopted a new attitude about services it will offer.

While vital services, like the center, have been the brunt of budget cuts, other programs like the tourist bus suggest that if SIUE officials want to cut costs, they do so in other areas. Needless national searches for administrators, deans, coaches and the like generally net poor results. And, often the person chosen after an expensive search is from within SIUE.

We also suggest that areas of waste and useless expense be examined. Tighter controls of travel and university-provided transportation could save money.

There are many areas in which SIUE could decrease its budget first, before hitting service-oriented programs which we believe provide a vital function for the area.

Tonight at 7, a protest meeting on behalf of the Rape and Sexual Abuse Care Center will be conducted at St. Paul's United Church of Christ on Bluff Road in Edwardsville. We urge concerned Quad-Cityans to attend. The center has served this area well and is too crucial to be lost to the proposed cut.

Higher state taxes hurt small businesses

To the Editor:

Within two weeks the Illinois General Assembly will be determining whether to raise the state's income tax.

While the precise revenue needs of Illinois are debatable, one fact is not. The myriad of tax increases enacted and proposed at the federal and state levels during 1983 will seriously jeopardize the ability of Illinois small businesses to recover from a persistent recession.

As a spokesman for small employers, the National Federation of Independent Business (NFIB/Illinois) represents, usually, small businesses. This constituency is especially hit by personal and corporate tax increases. They have no method of sheltering taxes, as larger firms do. Small businesses are labor intensive and pay payroll taxes put them at a competitive disadvantage.

Two payroll tax increases as mentioned above are already on the books in 1983. Unfortunately, as in 1969, the small business owners, as well as the general tax-paying public, tend to react and retaliate after the impact of such changes are felt, rather than before. When considering the income tax increase proposed, we must be concerned about the total new tax burden on small employers enacted in 1983.

At the federal level two new tax increases have already been passed. The Social Security Compromise will result in a significant increase in payroll taxes (potentially 70 percent by 1985) for small employers. The federal nickel a gallon gas tax increase has passed and the proposed state gas tax increase again impacts small businesses and every citizen of the state. Coupled with this April's Unemployment Insurance tax increase, it is an extremely costly year for Illinois' employers. This is prior to any discussion of local property, utility or other recent tax increases.

Thus, a personal income tax increase of 60 percent and corporate income tax increase of 40 percent may represent the proverbial "fatal blow" that we have heard of far too often. To tax small business owners beyond their means, is, in essence, handcuffing the number one employer in the state from providing new jobs for our thousands of unemployed.

Small business owners cannot understand why the government cannot take a page out of their book and reduce state spending in non-essential areas, or eliminate waste such as duplicative and unnecessary entities. They know that collections of existing taxes are millions below what they should be, even by the most modest

Department of revenue figures. And they cannot understand why the state must continue to spend millions of tax dollars producing goods and services that are readily available in the private sector.

Small business owners have consistently requested that these areas be reviewed to reduce the size and growth of non-essential government services. According to a state Chamber study, "If the General Assembly approves the $1.5 billion in new taxes for FY '84, this will not only constitute what is probably the largest single year increase in state general revenues in the history of the state, but it would be an increase of 21.1 percent from FY '83 to FY '84, far above the yearly revenue growth over the previous 12 fiscal years of 8.7 percent."

If the size of the tax increase disturbs you, and you feel alternatives similar to those mentioned are reasonable, now is the critical time to have your voice heard. By contacting your legislator immediately, you may help offset the vocal minority's efforts to increase taxes with little regard to reducing the size of government. For a change, we should do it before the vote rather than after.

"WHY DON'T WE GIVE THIS ONE A TRY?!"

Readers React

Quad-City residents, shopping at Crossroads Shopping Center Wednesday, were asked if they support some school district's decision to "return to the basics" and the merit pay raise system. Their reactions follow:

Bob Woods, Granite City

"I think it (returning to the basics) would be good. I think too often teachers try to do too much with education. They go into too much depth. They should stick to the basics. As far as teachers getting pay raises on merit, I don't think it's right. I think they should all get the same pay according to tenure."

Dave Trokey, Granite City

"I don't think they're (educators) working on basics as much as they should. I'm all for art and music, but before that I think they should teach the 3-R's. There are too many people who can't read when they graduate. No, I'm not in favor of merit pay raises."

Nancy Brown, Madison

"Yes, I think it's needed (going back to basics). A large majority of the graduates today are functionally illiterate. As for the merit pay raises, I don't think it can be done fairly. Math, for example, is just as important as physical education to a person's development."

Rebecca Chandler, Granite City

"No, I'm not in favor of going back to basics because the basics are out dated with today's students needs. Sure, we still need to teach reading, writing and arithmetic, but we certainly can't teach it the old way. Kids today are learning what you and I learned in the third grade. As for the other part of your question, I'm absolutely for the merit system. I'm a teacher here in Granite City and I've seen teachers who teach for all the wrong reasons. To some, I'm afraid, it's just a job. Others understand the importance of their job and do their absolute best for the students. Do you think the two should get the same pay?"

Seeks ban on armor-piercing bullets in U.S.

To the Editor:

Nine years ago, my wife and I lost a son to the American Handgun War. Since then, I've been fighting for a federal law controlling handguns and I've seen a lot of hostility, anger and even ugliness from the other side.

But recently, I've seen the National Rifle Association (NRA) come out in opposition to a ban on a type of ammunition; a bullet that has only one real use — to kill police officers.

Technically, these bullets are known as armor-piercing ammunition. Realistically, they are cop-killers.

Developed 12 years ago, these Teflon-coated bullets were originally intended to help police stop criminals fleeing in cars. But they proved too powerful. They went right through the cars, endangering bystanders. Soon, the police stopped using them. The manufacturers kept making them, and they were discovered by the most vicious element of the criminal class, especially the drug dealers.

The criminals needed something to counter the effectiveness of the vests that police officers have been wearing in increasing numbers since the mid-1970s (and which saved more than 400 lives from 1976 to 1981). The vests proved so effective against conventional ammunition that spouses and children gave them as Christmas presents. Even President Reagan wears one, ever since he was shot by John Hinckley.

The President's vest would have done him no good against a cop-killer bullet. In a recent police test, a vest was folded over twice and then shot with an armor-piercing .38. The bullet pierced the vest — and two and a half big city phone books.

We at Handgun Control, Inc., join the police chiefs of America and all other law enforcement officials whose troops stand in the front line against these bullets, in calling for a ban on armor-piercing handgun bullets. And the responsible manufacturers are with us; they have stopped making the bullets. But KTW, which makes the most popular version, thinks it is enough to stamp the boxes. "For Police Use Only."

I think that's reprehensible. But I think the standard of the NRA is even worse. Despite its ob-so-cosmetic national advertising campaign designed to show its members as "just plain folks," behind the scenes, the NRA, under its militant leadership, is pursuing its old tricks. It opposes a ban on these bullets.

Eight states now have laws against these bullets and at least seven more are working on them. Legislation to outlaw the bullets has already been passed in California. But clearly, federal legislation is needed to stop the threat. There is a bill in the Congress, sponsored by Sen. Daniel Moynihan and Rep. Mario Biaggi (a former policeman who was wounded 10 times) that would work. The Law Enforcement Officers' Protection Act (S. 555 & H.R. 953) would outlaw armor-piercing handgun bullets. Already, 15 senators and 146 representatives have cosponsored the Moynihan-Biaggi bill.

Soft body armor cannot stop these bullets, but our elected representatives can. It remains to be seen whether they will listen to the pleas of our police officers and the extremists at the National Rifle Association.

Says kidnapping wrong anti-abortion action

To the Editor:

I am not writing this letter with the intention of stirring up a lot of letters of rebuttal, only with the hope of drawing attention to those responsible for allowing and promoting abortion, or, in my thinking, just plain murder of unborn babies.

Recently a man was given a 40-year prison term for trying to keep this man from murdering thousands of babies. It's beyond thinking of how people can become glib and will do anything, such as abortion, for the almighty dollar.

Doctors can call pregnancy a fetus or whatever they want to call it but I know and believe it should be called just what it is, and that is a human being.

I can agree the man sentenced went at his fight for human life the wrong way by kidnapping this doctor and his wife. And, also, I'm sure the judge who sentenced this man has a religious background whose teaching is against abortion.

I pray every day to a man, born in this world who came to his own and they reviled him not. He was fairly accused of everything thought of, and was killed, crucified on a cross, for the sins of men. And, as he was dying, looked up and said "Father forgive them for they know not what they do."

AGAINST ABORTION

State Investigation

Louis of a relative of one of the program's leaders, missing materials, including storm windows, and other allegations.

Ridinger said he is aware of the allegations after George Dingus, director of the DCCA, told them in a personal telephone call. "We do intend to investigate all aspects of the program and I would think that would include any such allegations," he said.

"A number of allegations were made. This is the first time those kind of charges have been made. The others were serious, but not criminal-type allegations. We are going to have to look into those (allegations by the unnamed caller) as well as the technical aspects of the program," he added.

Ridinger revealed that there was a meeting Tuesday afternoon in Springfield to discuss the Madison County EOC and determine what should be done in the way of investigating the agency and determining if it should be allowed to continue the Weatherization Program or whether the program should be assigned to a different agency.

Specifics of Tuesday's discussion were not released, but Ridinger said after the meeting: "We are continuing our review and management analysis of the program and all of its facets. It is hard to give any indication of the direction it is going to take at this point."

"We are not going to let it slide by, I can assure you. The state is going to make sure that it (the weatherization program) is operating efficiently."

Prior to the meeting, Ridinger indicated that a full audit of the EOC's books is one possible action the IDCCA may take. He said that during the department's normal year-end evaluation of the 35 agencies administering the Weatherization program, seven were identified as "having technical problems," including the Madison County EOC program.

"We found the problems sufficient to warrant special conditions to the grant," Ridinger related, saying that the reviews for the seven agencies were changed from annual to quarterly and several conditions were imposed.

"As a result, a couple of weeks ago, they (the EOC) voluntarily shut it (the Weatherization Program) down for three weeks and agreed to submit a new plan. Really, no progress has been made by the Madison County agency to progress and operate as efficiently as we expect," Ridinger noted.

Ridinger said the department only controls the EOC by controlling its grants. The agency's programs operated by the EOC under grants from DCCA, weatherization, energy assistance and community service. "At this point, we are only talking about the weatherization program," he said.

If the investigation reveals serious problems, the other two grants also could be examined, he indicated.

He offered assurances that the low-income residents of the county, for whom the programs are designed, will not suffer because of EOC actions. "No matter what happens with the EOC, we will continue the weatherization program in Madison County. We'll find another agency, if we have to," Ridinger concluded.

Ruben Williams, executive director of the EOC, agrees that poor workmanship was the reason the weatherization program was voluntarily halted for three weeks.

He said the EOC is using the three weeks to inspect all 238 of the low-income homes weatherproofed under the program, at the request of the DCCA.

"The quality of work was good in some (homes) and bad in others," Williams said. "We're reviewing all of the houses and making corrections in all of those that need corrections."

Work in the homes was done by the same union, he noted, and said he has met with union representatives and informed them of the need for consistent quality work.

Williams said he plans to start up the weatherization program full-swing when the corrections are made. "We can start over fresh then," he predicted.

Drop basketball

predicted that such a decision would be made.

Back indicated that SUE's decision of May 13 to remain in the NCAA Division II created scheduling complications for the Cougar basketball team.

The problem arose after the announcement to remain in Division II and the university was committed to a basketball schedule which included all but four Division I opponents.

Meanwhile, Eldon Bigham, the university's former athletic director who was relieved of his duties the same day the university announced it would not seek Division I status, is filing a grievance against SUE president Earl Lazerson and other university officials to find out more of why he lost his job.

Bigham was relieved of his duties following an interview with a reporter of The Alestie, the campus newspaper. In that interview which involved the academic habits of two SUE tennis players, Bigham made some comments which students, faculty and administrators at the university dubbed as intolerable.

During the time the university was considering upgrading its status to Division I, Bigham often spoke about going Division I and made grandiose predictions what it would mean for SUE, something some administrators saw as "jumping the gun."

Now, as a result of the university's decision, the athletes must decide whether to stay at SUE or transfer to schools with active basketball programs. Those players who wish to remain at SUE (either returning athletes or newcomers) will receive their scholarship awards for the 1983-84 academic year and will not lose any athletic eligibility.

Back also said that those athletes (current or newcomers) who wish to transfer to another university may do so without sacrificing their athletic eligibility.

The 1983-84 season would have been the final year of a three-year contract for Cougar Coach Tom Pugliese whose teams have a 17-40 record his first two years.

Sources say the chances of Pugliese being rehired to the coaching position the following year are slim. He could not be rehired for comment Wednesday at his Collinsville home.

SIUE Professor Garry Murphy dies

Garry N. Murphy, 53, a member of the faculty at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville since 1969 and well-known writer of the newspaper column "About Language," died last week at Barnes Hospital in St. Louis.

He had been in failing health for more than a year but had taught at the university during spring quarter, which ended June 10.

An associate professor in the department of English language and literature of the SIUE School of Humanities, Murphy began writing his weekly column on language in October, 1979.

The column was distributed by University News Services to the major mass media in the metropolitan St. Louis-Southwestern Illinois area, and it has been printed in the monthly bulletin of the Illinois Press Association for the past three years.

Professor Murphy had been interviewed numerous times on regional television and radio talk shows. In 1967, he became known nationally when he invented a "graphic folder." The folder "lightens the instructor's load and enlightens the student," according to the inventor, "because it can be used as a permanent file for the student's themes and for self-evaluation."

Professor Murphy also was well known as a Shakespearean scholar, and he had been recognized in the region for his direction of the High School Writers Competition sponsored by his department SIUE.

Jean Kittrell, chairman of the department of English language and literature, announced that the department will sponsor a Garry N. Murphy Memorial Award, to be presented annually to an outstanding SIUE student.

Contributions for the award will be accepted by the department or the SIUE Foundation.

Survivors include three sons, Paul of St. Louis; Christopher, a student at the University of Illinois; and Geoffrey "Kit," who is serving with the U.S. Navy in Oakland, Calif. His wife, Jeanne, is deceased.

A memorial service will be held at the SIUE Religious Center in early July and plans for the service will be announced by the department of English language and literature.

CHARGES 3 BROTHERS FOLLOWING INCIDENT

Three brothers were charged with criminal damage to property last week by Madison police after they allegedly kicked a car and threw a cup of soda in the window.

The juveniles allegedly drove behind another youth as he was sitting in his car at a stop sign and called him a name. They allegedly followed him to the intersection of Rhodes Street and McCambridge Avenue, where they pulled in front of him, forcing him to stop.

The three then allegedly got out of their car and started kicking his car and threw a cup of soda inside the vehicle.

One of the youths was released to his father on a notice to appear in court and the other two were to be notified by the court.

Fights mar picnic fun at St. Mary's

Charges of aggravated battery, fighting and obstructing justice were made against persons at the grounds of St. Mary's picnic, 10th Street and Lee Avenue, Madison, during the weekend.

Madison Police Sgt. Norris Horton and Officer Frank Baczewski were on duty in the area at 12:05 a.m. Sunday and alleged seeing two men fighting, with one walking away upon their arrival.

Michael John Roberts, 20, of 1625 Delmar Ave., was being interviewed about the fight when Raymond Allen Reeves, 21, of 2142 Cleveland Blvd., allegedly walked up to Jimmie Odum, 21, striking Odum's face and knocking him unconscious.

Reeves was placed under arrest and charged with fighting and aggravated battery.

While Officer Baczewski was aiding Odum, Brian Keith Roderick, 19, of 47 Shirwin Drive, allegedly stepped between the officer and sergeant and was asked several times to leave or face arrest.

Roderick started to walk away, but when Sgt. Horton turned around to place Reeves into an ambulance, he observed a man coming from his rear and swung his police baton, hitting Brian Roderick on the upper leg.

Brian Roderick allegedly ran across the intersection. James and Alton and began beating on a sign with his fists and Venice Officers Bruce Fletcher and Brawley were asked to arrest him.

While placing the man in a Venice police car, Brian Roderick, 21, also of 47 Shirwin Drive, and Jayme J. Verdu, 20, of 27 Arlington Drive, allegedly began interfering with the Venice officers.

Both Mark Roderick and Verdu were charged with obstructing police officers and were released upon posting $50 cash bond.

Brian Roderick was charged with disorderly conduct and obstructing police officers. He was released after paying a $100 cash bond.

Later, Raymond Reeves was freed upon posting a $154 bond pending a hearing. Michael Roberts posted a $52 bond and was released.

While Brian and Mark Roderick and Verdu were being released at 1:20 a.m. Sunday, a woman called Madison police headquarters and began harassing Sgt. Horton.

Sgt. Horton, with the remarks heard by emergency medical technicians from the Madison Ambulance service, among others. Action against the woman is pending, reports said.

In a separate incident at 12:05 a.m. Saturday, officers alleged two men were fighting on the picnic grounds and arrested Bert Greg Tomlinson, 30, of 3007 Nameoki Road, and Allen C. Gott, 32, of 1126 Greenwood St., Madison.

Both were charged with fighting and were released from custody on notice to appear.

At 11:15 p.m. Saturday, Mrs. Cecelia Kowalczyk, who was working in a quilt booth at the picnic, noticed a cash box containing about $20 was missing from a shelf and saw a youth standing nearby.

Seconds later, she heard a noise and saw the boy run in to the crowd. He was between 12 and 15 years old, about five feet tall and was wearing a shiny black jacket and dark pants, she said.

REMOVES FAN

Becky Dildy, 1706 (rear) Cleveland Blvd., reported Monday that someone removed a screen and stole a window fan from her apartment. She alleged seeing a similar fan in a neighbor's window on Wednesday, but the fan had disappeared from the second window when an officer went to question the residents.

TOOL BOX STOLEN

Burglars broke glass in utility shed and stole a tool box worth $500 at the home of William Cotto, 3730 Joyce St., Pontoon Beach, it was reported to Madison County sheriff's deputies recently.

Defendants settle in dioxin suit

Three companies settled out of court Monday in a suit filed by the tanker company relatives of workers who cleaned up a dioxin-contaminated railroad spill.

The announcement was made prior to jury selection in Madison County Circuit Court in Edwardsville and Leavittsburg, Mo., and other sites.

The level of dioxin in the tank car amounted to 22 parts per billion.

Monsanto makes other phenol was spilled from a tanker. Both sides agreed that the tanker contained less than a teaspoon of dioxin, but the federal government considers anything over one part per billion as hazardous because of problems in Times Beach, Mo., and other sites.

The plaintiffs involved 22 dependents and a railroad worker. The relatives claimed that they suffered complications and ailments after dioxin was carried home on the workers' clothing.

The defendants that settled were the Norfolk & Western Railway Co., General Electric Co., Transportation Co., and Dresser Industries Inc. Attorneys for those companies declined to say the exact amount of the settlements.

Arguments and evidence will not be presented until the case is heard by a jury by Third Circuit Associate Judge Norman Kinder of Granite City.

Last week a jury awarded $58 million to 47 railroad workers who said they were harmed by dioxin in the spilled chemicals. All 47 verdicts are being appealed through the Fifth District Appellate Court at Mt. Vernon, Ill.

The case was tried before Circuit Judge Charles L. Chapman of Granite City.

The new cases involve one railroad worker who did not file suit in last year's case. All other defendants are relatives of those who previously filed suit. All the defendants, except the railroad, settled out of court, but the amount of the settlements was not released.

The spill occurred in Sturgeon, Mo., when 30,000 gallons of crude orthochlorophenol were spilled from a tanker. Both sides agreed that the tanker contained less than a teaspoon of dioxin, but the federal government considers anything over one part per billion as hazardous because of problems in Times Beach, Mo., and other sites.

Last week a jury awarded $58 million to 47 railroad workers who said they were harmed by dioxin in the spilled chemicals. All 47 verdicts are being appealed through the Fifth District Appellate Court at Mt. Vernon, Ill.

The case was tried before Circuit Judge Charles L. Chapman of Granite City.

The new cases involve one railroad worker who did not file suit in last year's case. All other defendants are relatives of those who previously filed suit. All the defendants, except the railroad, settled out of court, but the amount of the settlements was not released.

The spill occurred in Sturgeon, Mo., when 30,000 gallons of crude orthochlorophenol were spilled from a tanker. Both sides agreed that the tanker contained less than a teaspoon of dioxin, but the federal government considers anything over one part per billion as hazardous because of problems in Times Beach, Mo., and other sites.

The level of dioxin in the tank car amounted to 22 parts per billion.

Urban removes home from trust

Attorney Ben Urban, 41, former Collinsville city attorney, met the 4 p.m. Monday deadline to transfer the title of his home to his own name, rather than go to jail.

Urban had used his $100,000 home as bond when he was charged last year with stealing approximately $145,000 in truck fines from the county. Subsequently, records show, Urban transferred the title to his home to a trust with one of his sons named as a trustee.

Associate Judge John Day ordered Urban last week to transfer the title back to his name by 4 p.m. Monday or go to jail and Urban complied shortly before the deadline.

Urban, who faces a three-year prison term and payment of the missing money after pleading guilty to theft and forgery charges, said he transferred the title to the trust to avoid creditors claiming it, so it would be available to sell to help meet his legal expenses.

Assistant State's Attorney John Delaney said he believes Urban should be ordered to pay his sentence immediately, having violated the terms of his real estate bond.

Urban has until Friday to file an appeal of his sentence.

GC parks post $933,575 budget

By PATHAY LUTZ
The Granite City Park Board passed a resolution Tuesday which outlines the park district's budget for the fiscal year beginning May 1, 1983, and ending April 30, 1984. The resolution also called for a public hearing on the budget July 13 at 6:30 p.m.

According to Board Attorney Randall Robertson, the budget calls for expenditures totaling $933,575 and will be posted for public scrutiny.

The funds will come from real estate taxes, concession receipts and various federal grants allocated to the district.

In other business, board members approved a recommendation from Assistant State's Attorney Marshall "Zeke" Smith that Madison County officials collect approximately $700,000 in delinquent Mobile Home Privilege taxes due the county in return for one-third of the collected receipts.

In a letter to the board, Smith explained that the county would be willing to enforce and collect the tax, but that recent cutbacks in staff will force the county to use some of the collected monies to defray the cost of collection. "There is no obligation on the part of the taxing district to agree to this, except that we are not going to be able to press the program unless the bigger tax districts agree," Smith stated.

Board President George Sykes agreed with Smith's recommendation, saying, "We have nothing at stake here. We're not getting the money now, so it won't hurt to give up one-third."

Director of Parks and Recreation David Nolan reported that four men were hired to work on the landscaping project as a result of a recent federal grant. After bids for plants, seeds, and plant materials are opened June 29, work will begin on the project in July.

The grant also stipulates that the work be done by Sept. 15, and under no circumstances will the grant be used to pay for the project in July.

The previous trial created national attention, bringing the Madison County courts to the forefront because of lawyers with expertise in such cases and juries that are sympathetic to workers' complaints. According to the Federal Employees Liability Act of 1980, workers can file lawsuits anywhere a railroad operates.

Evidence in the trial against Monsanto Co. probably will be similar to the previous trial and testimony should outline the railroad's alleged failure to warn the workers that dioxin was in the chemical spill.

Weber says poster contest on drugs was a tremendous success

The Madison County Drug Essay Contest will announce the winners on July 1, according to Madison County State's Attorney, Don Weber. The contest is being sponsored by the state's attorney, Sheriff Emil Toffant, Regional Superintendent of Schools Harold Briggs, Parents Against Drug Abuse, and area health and civic groups.

The object of the contest is to increase awareness among school-age students of the harmful social and personal effects of illicit drugs and drug usage, and to convey to the community the extent of the availability of hard drugs to even grade-schoolers.

"We were very surprised and gratified at the good response to the contest," said State's Attorney Don Weber. "The schools and the various community groups who donated time and money showed that a positive approach to the problem of drug abuse among the young will be well received. More than 1,000 essays and posters have been turned in and more than $2,500 was raised as prize money. Interest was so high that we extended the deadline to the end of the school year."

"Reading these essays is an eye-opening experience, and sometimes hair-raising. It is shocking to hear fourth graders describe what it is like to be pressured into buying and using illegal drugs. Some students talk about their own bad experiences, while others wrote about tragic deaths or serious illnesses resulting from the abuse of drugs," Weber said.

"The essays and posters paint a vivid first-hand picture of the dangerous drug situation in our schools. Even one person dealing in a school district is a tragic danger to the students."

"I am surprised at the virtual request by many of them for the city from the adult world in keeping drugs away and forbidden. It is also heartening that kids who have not been that exposed to drugs are aware of the damage abuse leads to, and their universal denunciation of trying drugs for kicks or under peer pressure," Weber emphasizes.

The contest is now in the judging stage with judges from the judiciary, law enforcement, the media, health care specialists, college professors, attorneys, school officials and homemakers participating.

The county was divided into five districts, based upon geographical areas and available local funding. Each district is subdivided into four grade groupings: K-3; 4-6; 7-9; 10-12.

"The judges appear to be taking their task quite seriously, and their comments, so far, have reflected surprise at the content of the entries and satisfaction that the contest seems to have been successful."

"I was impressed with the candor of the students as they describe what almost the 'peril' of being young in today's society. I couldn't be a judge because I thought every paper I read and every poster I saw deserved a prize," Weber says. As a result of the quality and openness of the entries, it was decided to award a Certificate of Merit to all students entering the contest, as well as awarding first, second and third place cash prizes.

Following his letter of commendation to the sponsors, Lt. Gov. George Ryan was contacted by Contest Coordinator Virginia Rulison of the state's attorney's office. She states, "The lieutenant governor spent over an hour with me. He read 20 of the essays and viewed the same number of posters. He is a pharmacist and so, of course, is very alarmed at the rate of heavy drug abuse by students. He could not be in more wholehearted support of our efforts. He also congratulated us on the novel idea of our giving students the opportunity to express their opinions, rather than just giving them an anti-drug abuse lecture."

Lt. Gov. Ryan was so impressed with the project that he has enthusiastically agreed to honor the prize winners at a pre-game ceremony at Busch Stadium with Darrell Porter. More information on that "Winners Night" will be available when the winning entries are announced. Sponsors are planning to have winners' names in lights on the new scoreboard. Reserved seat tickets will be on sale at a reduced price.

Because so many newspapers have indicated their desire to do feature articles on the posters and essays, the entries will be made available to the press. However, because many of the essays are so personal in nature, the identities of the authors will remain anonymous. Many of the non-winning entries also will be excerpted for review by the press.

"By any standards, the Essay and Poster Contest has been a huge success," states Weber. "I am looking forward to meeting some of the winners, and to Busch Stadium 'Winner's Night.'"

Public Action Council seeking funds in GC

The Illinois Public Action Council is conducting its annual support drive in Granite City during the last two weeks of June. "As the advocate for average consumers throughout Illinois, we are taking the critical economic issues door-to-door — skyrocketing utility rates, unfair taxes, and record high unemployment," said Alan Libbra, a Public Action Board member from Alhambra.

The Illinois Public Action Council is a coalition of 120 community, farm, senior citizen, consumer, church, taxpayer and labor organizations with a combined membership of more than 500,000 Illinois residents, making it the largest consumer group in the state.

Public Action is best known for its efforts to oppose utility rate increases and to change the Illinois Commerce Commission (the five person commission that sets utility rates) from an appointed to an elected body.

"Gas and electric rates have doubled over the last five years. In Illinois, utilities are rewarded for inefficiency and mismanagement with one rate increase after another. We need a commission that will hold the rates down — a commission that's accountable to the ratepayers," said Libbra.

Public Action is informing area residents about the organization's issues, as well as letting supporters know which candidates for state office or Congress are considered "pro-consumer" by the organization.

Public Action canvassers are asking for yearly contributions to support their issue campaigns. "We have proven that when community people get involved, things happen. Through Public Action, we have won important victories that have saved consumers millions of dollars and untold

The canvassers cite Public Action's winning record: Since 1976, utility rate case interventions before the ICC slowed the pace of rate increases by major utility companies.

It began a campaign in 1977 to prevent winter shut-offs of utility service for low income consumers and the elderly.

Homestead Act passage in 1978 prevented tax increases for home improvements that maintain home value.

The sales tax victory in 1979 reduced the regressive sales tax on food and medicine.

In 1981, the Farmland Assessment Bill passed making taxation more equitable for small and medium farms.

In 1982, the natural gas price decontrol was defeated, saving consumers from a doubling of their gas bills.

Laws do not authorize recall elections, MCC members told

The members of the Madison Concerned Citizens were informed at their Monday evening meeting, held at the Polish Hall, that the recall of a public official is not legal in the state of Illinois.

Due to numerous complaints, allegedly unanswered by Madison City administration, the group, at its June meeting, unanimously voted to look into a possible recall election.

W. F. "Mick" Strange, chairman of the group, reported that he has been in contact with legal and election officials in Madison County, as well as Springfield, and was informed that there is no law in Illinois, at the present time, that allows for a recall petition and special election for elected officials.

Concern was again expressed by several members that the city administration will again try to pass home rule in Madison in the November, 1983 election. In November, 1981, the voters defeated the city-sponsored home rule referendum better than two to one.

The MCC's objection to the home rule issue was the almost unlimited taxing powers the city administration would have if it ever passed, a spokesman said.

Thomas George, a member of the city-sponsored burglar alarm committee, stated that no meeting has yet been called of the committee. This was verified by two other MCC members also serving on the city-sponsored committee.

Chairman Strange asked if any member of the group has ever been contacted to see if they want the electronic burglar alarm cable system. Of the 44 members present, no one had been contacted.

Membership of MCC comes from all areas of the city, Strange noted. Doubts about the project again were raised whether the people of Madison really want the electronic burglar alarm system and how much would it cost the average citizen. Negative results on the desire for the system were indicated by a random post card survey. Strange said.

Due to the fact that Illinois Power is asking for yet another rate increase, the MCC voted to contact Granite City Alderman Steve Saltich and see how the city is fighting the proposed increase in rates, which, in turn, would mean yet higher utility taxes in Madison. Granite City does not have a utility tax.

How to save money on your grocery bills

Here are some important shopping tips

- 1-Check specials in food store advertisements.
- 2-Get to know the butcher and produce manager.
- 3-Find out when deliveries of perishables are made and shop on those days. Fresher foods last longer and consequently, you'll waste less.
- 4-Learn to estimate accurately the amounts of food needed. Keep a record of the amount of food you throw away in a week. It may alert you to ways you can reduce waste.
- 5-For economy and variety, use eggs, dry beans, and peanut butter in place of meat some of the time. These foods provide protein and most other nutrients that meat supplies.
- 6-Use nonfat dry milk, which is less expensive than fluid milk, at least part of the time in cooking and as a beverage.
- 7-By law, economy sizes of non-food items must save you at least 5% over other sizes of the same brand.
- 8-Try to shop as seldom as possible, preferably once a week.
- 9-Always shop with a well thought out shopping list. Try to base your list of foods on your menu for the week.
- 10-Take advantage of the special coupon offers going on at First Granite City Savings in conjunction with your local Schnuck's grocer.

GM still a major steel customer

National Steel Corp. will continue to be a major supplier of steel to General Motors Corp., it was announced last week amid reports that the share of that business will be reduced.

The Wall Street Journal said U.S. Steel, Jones & Laughlin, Inland, Armco and Bethlehem will supply about 60 percent of the auto maker's steel in the 1984 model year, compared to a "much smaller" portion than that for those five firms in the 1983 production year. The newspaper said Jones & Laughlin and Inland significantly increased their shares of GM business. It added that National and McLouth were targeted for possible elimination as suppliers before that plan was overruled by Pres. F. James McDonald and GM's executive committee.

National and McLouth both have plants in the Detroit area. GM, based in Detroit, decided to spare that area from further economic hardship, the Wall Street Journal said.

Any possible impact on Granite City Steel could not be learned late last week. Spokesmen here and in Pittsburgh quoted a brief comment by Robert D. McBride, new president of the Steel Group of National Steel.

"We're very pleased that National Steel will continue to be a major supplier of steel to General Motors,"

GM said it will buy steel from the same 12 suppliers but declined to disclose how much it will order from each.

Supply bid results were expected to be announced in April but GM did not begin meeting with steelmakers individually until June 13, completing the notifications June 16.

The WSJ article contends that several firms will produce less steel for GM than before, including National Steel and Republic Steel.

A new bidding system was inaugurated by the nation's largest auto producer a year ago and then was slightly revised this spring.

Discusses BAC cutbacks

Pat Bartoskas, chairman of the Belleville Area College Board of Trustees, recently addressed community college trustees from throughout Illinois about steps BAC has taken in the face of funding cutbacks.

Mrs. Bartoskas was a featured speaker at an Illinois Community College Trustees Association seminar in St. Louis.

She explained that BAC board members realized a new direction was needed when they were faced by a strike by 60 percent of the faculty in 1980. The most recent step in that direction is a wage freeze for faculty and administrators for the 1983-84 school year, she said.

Other significant changes, Mrs. Bartoskas said, included replacing top administrators and removing department heads from faculty ranks and making them associate deans.

A panel of the Belleville Area College associate deans also spoke at the seminar. Arthur Parrish, Dr. Richard Melinder, Rita Heberer, Clay Baltman, Jim Cox and Don Koleson spoke on faculty and staff reactions to the retrenchment process. They explained that the involvement of as many faculty and staff as possible in the early stages of the retrenchment process can reduce negative reaction.

GARAGE BURGLARY

In a garage burglary at the home of George Reeves, 2593 Boyle Ave., reported at 7:45 p.m. Monday, two 10-speed bicycles valued at $200 were stolen. Both machines were blue.

Couple wins 'Dance Fever' spot

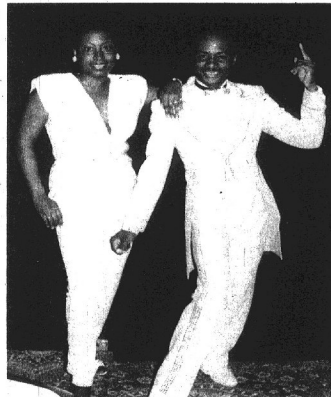

Yvonne and Johnny Hatcher, a husband and wife dance team, are Hollywood bound for the taping of the Dance Fever television show after being chosen the winners from among 32 couples at an audition at the Oz nightclub in Sauer.

Paul Gilbert, producer of Dance Fever, selected the Hatchers to appear in the national contest. Mrs. Hatcher is the former Yvonne McGraw, raised and educated in the Madison area. She is the daughter of Lorene McGraw Gresham, a St. Elizabeth Medical Center employee, and Forest McGraw, retired from General Steel Industries.

She started dancing at age 10 with her brother, F.G. (Gene), who was then 11. They won talent show contests at Kiel Auditorium, St. Louis, and the Dunbar Elementary School District with their tap dance routines.

Her husband, while teaching at the Pruitt Community School, St. Louis, created a dance routine which became known as "The Johnny Hatcher."

The couple has been married 14 years and has two sons, Lamont and Xavier, who also dance. They now reside in Centerville. Hatcher has a son, Johnny Jr., a senior at Howard University, and three daughters, Patricia, Terry and Brenda.

Southwestern taking GC to arbitration

By ED GURNEY

Southwestern Cable TV is taking both Collinsville and Granite City to arbitration. The Collinsville city council approved only $1 of the $2 increase that was requested; Granite City rejected the entire increase request.

A $2 increase in the basic cable TV rate went into effect in Caseyville this month because the village board did not respond quickly enough to South-Western's request for an increase.

That was the word Friday from David Olson, vice-president of South-Western.

Village officials are not satisfied with the increase and have asked village attorney Tom Keefe Jr. to contact South-Western.

Caseyville Mayor George Chance said he believes representatives of the firm should have met with village officials before raising the rates.

Olson said Caseyville failed to meet with South-Western within 21 days after it received the firm's letter asking for a rate hike. The 21-day period is specified in the cable firm's franchise agreement, he said.

The firm sent its letter to Caseyville, April 6; the letter from the village rejecting the increase was dated May 6, Olson said.

The village had lost its copy of the franchise agreement and was provided another copy by South-Western, Olson said.

The village board of trustees at its May 4 meeting announced it would write a letter to South-Western rejecting the hike, but no actual vote was taken.

Olson said he wrote to the mayor May 12 telling him the board did not meet the 21-day requirement and that the $2 increase was going in to effect.

Olson said that in some other towns, governing boards choose to ignore the firm's letters, allowing the increases to go into effect automatically.

Maryvonne and Troy both approved the $2 increase.

Alleges resists arrest on warrant

After an officer advised Madison P. Perrigue, 23, of 2509 Grand Ave., that he was wanted on an active warrant issued by Illinois State Police District 11, alleging failure to appear in court on a charge of driving with a suspended license, Perrigue reportedly refused to go with the officer and walked away. He then ran from the scene.

The incident occurred at 8:20 p.m. Monday in the 2500 block of Iowa Street, with a two-block chase ensuing.

A second officer arrived in the area and Perrigue was trapped and arrested. He was charged with resisting arrest and also was held on the ISP warrant.

Businesses may not get 'unitary' funds

Revenue Director J. Thomas Johnson warned Monday that business taxpayers awaiting "unitary" income tax refunds will not be paid during the next fiscal year without legislative approval of the governor's request for a $200 million appropriation for that purpose.

The appropriation request is part of the governor's March 2 budget. However, that budget is based on no tax increase and requires extensive budget cuts to provide the funding for the unitary tax payment. Those payments could be in jeopardy without a balanced budget.

Johnson said the Department of Revenue has received hundreds of inquiries from business taxpayers and their accountants about the refunds. As a result, the department is sending a letter to 2,000 taxpayers, who have approved refunds at this time, telling them that the department can begin paying those refunds soon after July 1 only if the $200 million appropriation is approved. Several thousand other taxpayers who have refund requests pending also will be affected.

Johnson said that the refund appropriation has been substantially reduced by the General Assembly and would be far short of that needed to pay the refunds if passed at the current level. "The Governor and the Department are continuing efforts to have this appropriation restored to the requested level so that the state can begin paying all refunds owed," Johnson said.

Unitary refunds resulted from a 1981 Illinois Supreme Court decision which determined that businesses interrelated through common ownership and business activities share a tax liability based on their combined income.

BURGULARY TAKE

JEWELRY GUN
William Masters, 2126 Illinois Ave., reported at 7:35 p.m. Monday that a safety box at his home was pried open by a burglar and a six-shot antique revolver valued at $300 and a dinner ring worth $200 were stolen. Also missing were a gold case ring, three pairs of ruby, sapphire and diamond earrings, 30 silver dollars, two rolls of quarters and 50 wheat pennies.

State Fair competition deadlines approaching

Livestock owners have only one week left to send in their entries for livestock competition at the 1983 Illinois State Fair.

Entries for general livestock are due July 1 and poultry entries close July 10. Livestock Premium books are available through the Entry Department of the Department of Agriculture's fair division. These books list contest dates, entrance requirements, rules and regulations, prizes available and judging details for the traditionally most popular contests at the fair.

People interested in any of the livestock competitions can write for more information or for premium books to Entry Department, P.O. Box 576, State Fair, Springfield, IL 62705. Late entries may be considered if requests for premium books and entry forms are made before July 1 by calling 217/782-0786.

Jean Stubbfield of the Entry Department said July 1 is also the deadline for entering junior livestock competitions. Mrs. Stubbfield said this deadline is about a month earlier than usual. Young people, 12-21, must obtain Junior Department books through local extension offices.

Entries for General Department competitions are due July 15 with exceptions listed in the available General Premium Book. General categories include art, flower and textile shows, cooking competitions and other activities such as stamp collecting that are completed before the fair begins.

This year's State Fair "Where Illinois Gets Together," runs Aug. 11-21 at the fairgrounds in Springfield.

TOOLS TAKEN

Charles Shane, 2117 Hamilton Drive, reported to Madison County sheriff's deputies that burglars stole $300 worth of tools and a hydraulic jack from a truck parked at his home recently.

Horseshow Lake is one of 12 DOC survey sites

A series of spring and summer surveys aimed at helping the Department of Conservation make future management decisions on bird populations, is in progress across the state, according to Vernon Klen, avian ecologist with DOC's Division of Forest Resources and Natural Heritage.

One of the areas being surveyed is Horseshow Lake State Recreation Area near Granite City. Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville is doing the surveying.

The surveys, underwritten by the Conservation Department for the third consecutive year, started in May and will conclude at the end of June or early July at 12 state sites. Objectives are to identify breeding species at the sites, determine their distribution, and make recommendations for their management.

All avian species at each site will be included in the census, but of special interest will be those considered rare, threatened or endangered. Klen reported.

In 1982, sixteen DOC properties were surveyed, and in 1981, eight sites. No site has been surveyed more than once.

Information obtained in the investigations will be incorporated into each site's master management plan. It will be considered when decisions are made on construction projects, placement of such facilities as campgrounds, shelters, parking areas and trails, or on habitat enhancement to preserve or expand bird populations, Klen said. Such decisions long have been influenced by wildlife considerations, but data on avian populations has not been available previously, Klen noted.

Final reports on the investigations will contain information on vegetation and habitat found at all census stops and along the survey routes at each site. There also will be data on each species' abundance, occurrence, distribution, habitat, association and how the species utilized the available habitats.

MEGSI agents serve warrants on GC men

Agents from the Metropolitan Enforcement Group, Southwestern Illinois and a Granite City police sergeant arrested Danny J. Dawson, 30, of 2421 Missouri Ave., at 10:55 a.m. Wednesday on warrants alleging unlawful delivery of cannabis.

At 11:30 a.m. Wednesday, the same law enforcement officers went to the home of Ricky D. Evans, 18, of 2652 Missouri Ave., taking him into custody, also on a MEGSI warrant alleging unlawful delivery of cannabis.

Dawson, Evans and Smith appeared before Associate Judge George Moran Jr. in the Granite City court at 4:30 p.m. Wednesday.

Dawson's bond was set at $3,000 cash and a preliminary hearing was set. Cash bonds of $2,500 and preliminary hearings also were set for Evans and Smith.

Mittimus were issued and all three men were transferred today to the Madison County Jail at Edwardsville.

During the arrest of Dawson, Holly M. (White) Wade, 20, of 1949 St. Clair Ave., who was at the residence, was taken into custody on a Granite City warrant, alleging failure to appear in court on a charge of not having a driver's license. She was released after posting a $102 cash bond.

Deadline for cheerleader clinic

Monday is the deadline for registration for a summer cheerleader clinic where the World Cheerleader Council of Dallas, Texas, brings its national staff of professional cheerleader instructors to Edwardsville for a three-day Summer Cheerleader Camp at Metro-East Lutheran High School, July 11, 12 and 13.

Attendance is open to all students between the ages of 12 and 18, both male and female, and is not restricted to elected cheerleaders. Everyone is being welcomed.

Classes will be offered at various age levels with different divisions for beginners, intermediate and advanced. The program of instruction will feature new cheers, chants, songs, pom-pom routines, tumbling, jumps, technique, pep assemblies, leadership, sportsmanship, appearances and conduct.

For further information or to receive registration forms, students interested in attending the camp may contact Mrs. Cherie Sievers, cheerleader sponsor, Metro-East Lutheran High School, 1001 Center Grove Road, Edwardsville, or call her at 1-656-0043 or 1-635-8002.

York Rite Bodies to install officers

The York Rite Bodies will install officers for the year tonight at 7:30 at the Masonic Temple, 20th Street and Cleveland Boulevard. Members, master Masons, families and friends are invited to the ceremony and reception.

The Bodies are comprised of Granite City Chapter 221 Royal Arch Masons, St. Clair Council 61 Royal and Select Masters, and Emmanuel Commandery 81 Knights Templar.

The presiding officers to be installed are Jimmy E. Stuart, Granite City, as excellent high priest of the chapter; Ellis N. Hackney Jr., Granite City, as the illustrious master of the council; and Robert H. Blackwell, Dow, as eminent commander of the commandery.

Installing officers will be Charles E. Hileman Jr., Mt. Vernon, excellent grand master of the First Veil of the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of Illinois, who will install the chapter officers; Edward J. Lane, Granite City, most illustrious past grand master of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of Illinois, who will install the council officers; and Chester A. Owings, Alton, very eminent deputy grand commander of the Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of Illinois, who will install the Commandery officers.

The York Rite is an extension and elaboration of the Symbolic or Blue Lodge of Free Masonry. Completion of the York Rite or Scottish Rite is one of the requirements of becoming a Shriner.

COMPLETES BASIC Marine Private Clyde J. Leonard, son of Thomas and Ora Leonard, 532 Mercedia Ave., Venice, has completed 11 weeks of recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego, Calif.

REAPPOINTED. Attorney William F. Kinder of Granite City has been reappointed public defender of Madison County. It was announced today by Chief Circuit Judge A.A. Matosian. Kinder has held the post since Dec. 1, 1979, having been appointed when Paul Reilly resigned. Kinder has practiced law in Madison and Granite City since 1966.

GC Council Action at a glance

Aldermen voted unanimously to endorse the Plan Commission's recommendation to deny a commercial zoning request for two lots at the intersection of Johnson Road and Lydia Lane. About a dozen residents attended the council meeting Tuesday in opposition to the rezoning that would have allowed a food convenience store to be built on the site.

Reacting to a resident's request for compensation after sewage flooded his basement, the city contacted its insurance company and learned it has no liability coverage for possible damage caused by the sanitary sewer systems network of pipes and drains. Several area basements have been flooded by raw sewage and storm water.

Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) officials made an initial survey of local sewer breaks Monday and estimated costs at $34,000 to repair breaks that occurred after March 28. Repair to breaks beyond that date are expected to be funded by grants under the city's new status as a federal disaster area. Warfield said he and FEMA representatives currently disagree on the cost and type of construction needed to repair the breaks. Mayor Paul Schuler said the city is still waiting word on its request of funds to repair the five or six sewer breaks that occurred prior to the March 28. City officials have estimated all repairs might cost as much as $1.7 million. The city will receive $300,000 in special Community Development funds to help defray expenses.

Don Conley, 2504 Northridge, asked for adequate lighting, periodic cleaning, mosquito spraying and eventual replacement of the Lexington Subdivision drainage ditch. Sixth Ward Aldermen Stephen Saltich and Woodrow "Woody" Moad placed on file a 208-signature petition asking for, among other items, the elimination of the open storm sewer. Mac Warfield, superintendent of streets, said last week that his workers removed more than four tons of debris from the ditch. He appealed to homeowners there to turn in lawnmowers away from the ditch while cutting grass, since clippings are contributing to the drainage problem. Conley said his petition drive was preceded by six years of attempts by him to have the situation corrected. As a result, he is calling for the formation of a citizens' advisory committee to the council to improve communications between residents and the local government.

Aldermen voted for the termination of a Wastewater Treatment Plant employee after council members emerged from a closed-door executive session called by Third Ward Alderman Paul Fisk, chairman of the pollution plant committee, to discuss personnel matters. Fifth Ward Alderman Jake Varadian, committee member, asked for a temporary postponement of a motion to replace the discharged employee.

The council also approved a request by the Lincoln Place Athletic Club to block off Niedringhaus Avenue between Olive and Spruce streets for a July 24 picnic and street dance. Permission was granted for a 10,000 meter run down Johnson Road and Madison Avenue on Sept. 5 for the Chokoma Scout Council of Boy Scouts in conjunction with Boy Scout Troop 13 of St. Elizabeth Catholic Church.

Building funds established for Tim Patterson

A fund has been established at American Heritage Bank for a Granite City man who is quadriplegic following a motorcycle accident.

Tim Patterson, 29, suffered a broken neck April 11 when his cycle missed a curve in Glen Carbon and hit a sign post. He was hospitalized at a Quadraplegic Hospital in St. Louis and recently was transferred to St. Mary's on the Mount Rehabilitation Center, where he is undergoing intensive physical therapy.

St. Mary's picnic scene of fight

After a relatively peaceful day, compared to Friday night and early Saturday morning when several arrests were made, Madison police were again called to the St. Mary's Church picnic grounds Sunday because of a fight.

Although no arrests were made, Gary Graville, 722 Washington Ave., contended that he was punched in the face by a man who had left the picnic.

There is a possibility that an arrest will be made, authorities said.

Witnesses gave police conflicting accounts of the incident. Graville's statements. He said he was at a beer tent when he was approached by the man who asked if Graville was going to play ball on the team.

After replying that he wasn't going to play on the man's team, Graville told police that the man asked for his T-shirt back. As Graville was taking off the shirt, the man punched him, he said.

Police noted two lacerations near Graville's right eye. He told police he would seek medical attention on his own.

WALLET STOLEN

Becky Dutko reported to Madison police last week that while she was at a nightclub in East St. Louis, someone stole her wallet containing $150 and personal papers.

HOPING FOR HELP. Raymond and Leigh Maxienier have started a $10,000 building fund at American Heritage Bank in Granite City to remodel the house of Timothy Patterson of Pontoon Beach so he can come home to his family in August or September. Patterson, 30, has been a quadriplegic since an accident in April and is presently in a rehabilitation center in St. Louis. He cannot return home until his home is made accessible for a wheelchair. Timothy Patterson, his wife, and his children, Paulette Patterson, his wife, and his children, Timothy Jr. and Christine, stand in front of the side of the house in which a wheelchair ramp is to be placed. STATE POLICE OFFER PREVENTION TIPS

Home burglaries amounted to more than 3.3 million throughout the nation in 1982. This makes the national average of burglary at one every ten seconds, according to law enforcement agencies.

Superintendent R. J. Miller of the Illinois State Police announced June 15 Burglary Prevention Month and urged all citizens to assist police departments in fighting home burglaries, especially as the warm weather and vacation season starts.

Miller offers these suggestions for homeowners: Close and lock all doors and windows. Use automatic timers connected to lights and radios to turn them on and off. Outside lights may also be connected to timers. Don't leave valuables lying around your home, lock them up. Notify police when you will be leaving and how long you expect to be gone. Cancel all deliveries including mail, milk, cleaning and newspaper. Have your lawn mowed while you are gone. Do not close your shades or blinds. Make your home looked lived in.

Beach Boys, Charlie Daniels top Illinois State Fair shows

The Illinois State Fair has completed the Grandstand line-up for the 1983 season.

Recently added to the roster are The Charlie Daniels Band, The Great Kuhn Band with Head East and a dual act with The Temptations and The Four Tops. The fair was also successful in rescheduling the Beach Boys for Aug. 20.

Starting off the fair will be The Four Tops and The Temptations, Aug. 11 at 8 p.m. The Greg Kuhn Band and the Midwest-based band, Head East, are scheduled to perform Aug. 12 at 8 p.m.

Juice Newton and The Trashers Brothers, a gospel-gospel duo, are featured for a 7 p.m. show on Aug. 13. The Drum and Bugle Corps competition, part of the Veteran's Day activities, will be held Aug. 14.

The Charlie Daniels Band and Lacy J. Dalton for two shows at 7 p.m. and 9:30 p.m. Aug. 15. Willie Nelson will take the stage Aug. 10 and Aug. 17 at 8 p.m. Last year his performances sold out.

Nelson recently received the Academy of Country Music's album of the year and single of the year awards for "Always On My Mind."

The Academy of Country Music's entertainer of the year Alabama will appear at 8 p.m. Aug. 18. They were also recently named top vocal group by the Academy for the third straight year.

Prices will remain the same as last year at $7, $6, and $4. The fair will once again put 1,000 tickets on sale each day of each show at $2 per person.

Ticketron, the nationwide computerized ticket-selling firm, is being retained for the second year to serve as the primary source for obtaining tickets to grandstand events. It will provide approximately 50 additional ticket-selling outlets across the state to Visa and MasterCard holders. Tickets are by The Bellamy Brothers, George Strait and Bonnie Nelson. All shows will be followed by fireworks displays each night.

Tickets are now on sale. Prices will remain the same as last year at $7, $6, and $4. The fair will once again put 1,000 tickets on sale each day of each show at $2 per person.

'Promises, Promises' to open at the Muny

Neil Simon's "Promises, Promises" will be the second production of the 1983 summer season at the Muny.

The show, which stars John James, Susan Powell and Terence Monk, will open Monday, June 27, and run nightly through July 3 with an 8:15 curtain time.

"Promises, Promises" with music by Burt Bacharach and lyrics by Hal David, is based on the movie "The Apartment" by Billy Wilder and L.A. Diamond.

It won't to Tony Awards during its first season on Broadway. The story revolves around Actor John James, appearing for the first time at The Muny, will portray Chuck Baxter in this production. James is seen weekly by millions as Jeff Colby on BAC's "Dynasty." He portrayed Tom Bergman in the daytime drama, "Search for Tomorrow," before graduating from the American Academy of the Dramatic Arts. He was with the series for two-and-a-half years.

Susan Powell, appearing as Fran Kubelik in this production, is a former Miss America. Terence Monk will appear as J. D. Sheldrake in this production - his first at The Muny.

Family series on dealing with alcoholism offered

Every family experiences some form of tension. But the influence of alcohol on a family increases those tensions, often to the point of causing the family structure to disintegrate.

Talbot Hall, an alcohol and drug abuse treatment center located at St. Elizabeth

Medical Center, offers a family education series to help families deal with the effect alcoholism has on their lives.

The series meets on Tuesday evenings from 6:30 to 8:30 for four consecutive weeks and will be continuous.

The program, which is directed at the entire family unit, will cover such topics as alcoholism recovery programs, relapse and the roles of the family members and enabling behaviors.

"This program," says Ginny Dellamano, program coordinator, "will also help prepare those people planning to enter the Family Care Program, which is a five-day out-patient program based on the treatment philosophy that alcoholism and chemical dependency are family illnesses."

The cost is $4 per person per session and the sessions will be in the Talbot Hall lecture hall. Interested persons may call Nancy Adams at 766-3069 to make reservations.

BAC offering computer camp

Bellevue Area College will hold a July computer camp for students entering the seventh and eighth grades.

Students will learn to program in the BASIC computer language.

The camp will meet for four consecutive Fridays from July 8 to 22. Three sessions will be conducted. The first will meet from 10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., the second from 1:30 p.m. to 4 p.m., and the third from 1:30 to 4 p.m.

The tuition is $30. Registration is from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Mondays through Thursdays, July 7, in the General Studies and Community Services Office, room 1274, at the Bellevue campus, 2500 Carlyle Road, Bellevue.

For more information, interested persons may call Laura Eble, 1-235-2700, extension 202.

YMAC HAS 31 DAYS DURING SUMMER

This summer the Tri-City area YMCA is making its facilities available to non-members under 18 for $1 per day. This fee allows youths to use the gym, gameroom, and swimming pool at various times Monday through Saturday for the entire summer.

For $1 a day youths may use the gym and gameroom every day from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m., except during special events. The pool is open for recreational swims on Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 1:30 to 2:45 p.m. and 2:45 to 4 p.m. The pool is open on Saturdays from 1 to 3 p.m.

Adult non-members may also take advantage of the facilities at these times for $3 per day.

Youth and adults who are members of the YMCA are also welcome during these times.

For more information about Dollar Days, interested persons may call the YMCA at 876-7200.

WARRANT SERVED

Arrested in the 2400 block of Illinois Avenue at 2:35 a.m. Tuesday was Ronald E. Miller, 18, of 2510 W. 24th St., who was booked on a warrant for failing to appear in court on a theft charge.

2 arrests follow chase and crash

Seeing a young motorcyclist speed through a red traffic light on Madison Avenue at 27th Street last week, a Granite City police officer activated flashing red lights and hurried after the southbound yellow and black cycle.

Within several minutes, the officer and a motorist were taken by ambulance for emergency care at St. Elizabeth Medical Center, and within 75 minutes two men were in police custody.

The motorcyclist, wearing a sweatshirt and white jeans, accelerated during the chase after the patrol car initially gained on it.

The pursuing officer alerted other police by radio, and the chase and crash were seen from the police station in the 2300 block of Madison Avenue.

Ellen F. Huffaker, 46, of 24 Bradley Ave. reacted to a red light turning green and began to edge eastward across Madison Avenue at 23rd Street.

She was able to avoid the motorcycle when it went past. She then started across again, not seeing the approaching police vehicle.

Officer Michael Gagich, 26, applied the brakes but the squad car skidded 71 feet before its front end collided with the left front of Mrs. Huffaker's pickup truck.

The truck momentarily lifted up and then skidded around, coming to a halt a few feet south of the intersection. The police car careened another 100 feet, crossing the center of the street and breaking a large window on the Madison Avenue side of Lombardi's Interiors.

Both motorists were rushed to the nearby hospital for treatment of cuts and bruises.

Although the motorcyclist escaped, officers launched an investigation and they were joined in the early morning hours by Gagich, who helped verify ownership of the motorcycle.

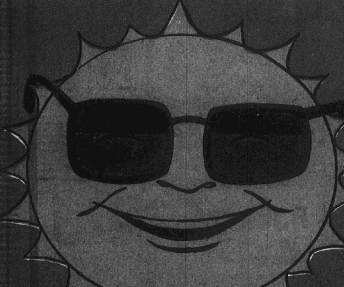

The probe soon pointed to William Eugene Hawkins, 22, of 2217 Washington Ave. and he was charged with reckless conduct, disobeying two stoplights, reckless driving, speeding and fleeing from police.

His brother, Talmadge G. Hawkins, 24, of the same address was arrested for disorderly conduct after allegedly loud and abusive remarks.

The motorcycle was recovered from the back yard at 2217 Washington, officers said.

RESTITUTION ORDER
Donald R. Harris, 29, of 4406 Kirkpatrick Homes was arrested at the housing project last week on a charge of property damage. He was fined $235 and was ordered to make restitution.

Cloverview Club studies begonias and hummingbirds

A program on begonias and hummingbirds was presented by Mrs. Randall Irwin and Mrs. Louise Sedlack at the June meeting of Cloverview Garden Club held at Geo's Restaurant.

Mrs. Albert Taylor hosted the gathering which opened with a dessert luncheon followed by the business session.

Mrs. Irwin gave the study on begonias and to illustrate her talk several members displayed the red begonia, beefsteak begonia and pink angling begonia. She told the members that begonias are favorites for house decorations and are available in several hundred species and thousands of varieties. The plants require little attention and hanging basket tuberous begonias have blossoms that cascade all summer and are considered the favorite of trailing plants.

The red throated humming bird comes to all red and orange tubular flowers which are their favorite colors and perhaps reminds them of bright flowers in the tropics. Mrs. Sedlack explained. She said the bird is able to fly backward; forward, and up and down on amazing wings which move so fast that the human eyes can neither follow nor count their movements.

Their nest is tiny, made of plant silk and spider webs, and holds two white eggs the size of a navy bean. The pair of babies emerge resembling a honey bee. After they grow and feather out they soon join their parents and in late September the birds go south along the southern coast and then across the Gulf of Mexico on a non-stop trip 500 miles long to the Yucatan, Mrs. Sedlack added.

Mrs. B. C. O'Neill, club president, presided at the business segment and named her committee chairmen for the year as the new yearbooks were distributed.

Mrs. Etheridge gave the report on the Rose Luncheon in Edwardsville attended by Mesdames John Lentz, John Jenkins, Albert Taylor, Clarence Etheridge, and Mrs. O'Neill.

The club will recess in July and in August a special program will be held at the Harold Brown Recreation Center. Guest speaker will be David Harper, wildlife manager of the Illinois Department of Conservation and all garden clubs in Granite City are invited to attend, the president announced.

Others present were Mrs. George Stearns, John Lentz, Robert McCauley, John Jenkins, Charles Gandola and a guest, Mrs. Ruby Rhine.

Medical assistants hear Dr. Ed Rose

Dr. Ed Rose spoke on "The Cause and Treatment of Arthritis" at the June meeting of the St. Clair County Chapter of the American Association of Medical Assistants.

The group met at Fischer's Restaurant in Belleville, for the dinner meeting conducted by Linda Harp, CMA.

Clarey Hutchison, CMA, gave a progress report on the plans for the next Illinois State Convention to be held in April 1984 at the Holiday Inn in Alton.

The annual "bosses night" is scheduled for Sept. 24, at Augustine's Restaurant in Belleville, according to Minnie Lebowitz, EMT. The theme for the social evening will be Mississippi Gambling Night. All medical assistants and their bosses are invited to attend, she added.

A representative from the eye bank will be the featured speaker at the July 21 meeting at Ravanello's Restaurant in Granite City, the president noted.

VFW AUXILIARY DONATES $100

Frances Aldridge, chaplain of the VFW Auxiliary, Post 1300, presented a check for $100, on behalf of the organization, to Addie Dunn, a representative of Temple Baptist Church of Madison.

The contribution is to be used to aid the cooling system project at the Edwardsville Shelter Care Center, Mrs. Aldridge explained.

Author of book on dying to address group in GC

By MARIA MCKINSEY
St. Elizabeth
Medical Center

Dr. Elisabeth Kubler-Ross will speak on the subjects of "Life, Death and Transition" Saturday at St. Elizabeth Medical Center. Her presentation will begin at 7:30 p.m. and will be followed by a question and answer session.

Dr. Kubler-Ross' book, "On Death and Dying," has received wide acclaim as a pioneer work, describing the problems and challenges faced by those who are terminally ill and persons who are close to them. Since this book was published in 1969, Dr. Kubler-Ross has written six more books dealing with death and dying.

Dr. Kubler-Ross travels more than 50,000 miles a year, offering workshops and lectures on improving the quality of life. Her work has been recognized with numerous awards and honors, including the Golden Plate Award from the American Academy of Achievement, the Ladies Home Journal "Woman of the Decade" Award and honorary doctoral degrees from 20 separate educational institutions.

The body of knowledge that Dr. Kubler-Ross has compiled and shared in her work as a physician, psychiatrist, author and lecturer, has benefited not only the terminally ill and their family members, but also those who are members of the helping professions, including nurses, doctors, and the clergy, a spokesman said.

Dr. Kubler-Ross' appearance is sponsored by the Southern Illinois District of the Illinois Society of Hospital Social Workers. There is a $40 fee for the lecture. As her lecture presentations usually sell out quickly; those interested in attending are advised to make reservations as soon as possible.

For further information, interested persons may contact Paula Nicolet, director of social work at St. Joseph's Hospital in Highland, 1454-7421, extension 249, or Ralph Hausmann, director of social work at St. Elizabeth Medical Center at 798-3018.

STEAL CAR 'BRAIN'
The computerized "brain" unit was stolen from the engine compartment of a 1978 Chrysler owned by B.W. Wallace, 2801 Warren Ave., he reported at 6 p.m. Monday. A hubcap also was missing from the vehicle.

Glik's Ltd. will open at Northwest Plaza

The Glik Company, a chain of 13 apparel stores, will open a Glik's Ltd. Shop, Aug. 1, in Northwest Plaza, St. Ann, Mo., it was announced.

The 20,000 square-foot ladies' specialty shop will be the third Glik's Ltd. opened within the past nine months, and company officials say more store openings are planned.

"We have plans to open two to three more Glik's Ltd. stores in major St. Louis malls over the next year and one-half," Joe Glik, chief executive officer of Glik company, said.

The other two stores opened in the last nine months were at St. Clair Square and West Port Plaza.

FINDS A LOANED VEHICLE DAMAGED
Cameron Bartlett, 1800 Spruce St., who is in the process of selling a 1973 Pontiac, told police at 2:10 p.m. Monday that he had loaned the auto to a Collinsville resident to test drive and was advised by the man that the vehicle had quit running at East 23rd Street and Nameoki Road.

When he went to pick up the car, Bartlett said, the auto had sustained considerable damage. Windows on the side and rear, as well as the windshield, were broken; the hood was dented in several places and a hole had been made on the right side.

A pick may have been used to cause the damage, it was theorized.

Entertainment

"The Magic of Lassie" film will be shown tonight free of charge at the 27th Street and Delmar Avenue entrance of Wilson Park. The movie will begin at dusk. Those attending should bring lawn chairs. The event is sponsored by the Granite City Park District. The public is being invited.

"The Great Muppet Caper" will be shown at 1, 3, 5 and 7 p.m. today free of charge at the former State Street Theater, 1917 State St. The event is part of the annual downtown sidewalk sale.

The second annual German Herzfest will feature the Waterloo German Band, Vince's Internationals, German food and a variety of games on the grounds of Sacred Heart Catholic Church, 2606 Washington Ave. The Herzfest begins with a 5 p.m. German language mass on Saturday and will continue that night. The festival will reopen on Sunday with an 11:30 a.m. German mass. The public is invited.

The Variety Men band will entertain from 2 to 4 p.m. on Sunday at the 27th Street and Delmar Avenue entrance to Wilson Park. There is no charge.

Lectures

"Life, Death and Transition" will be the topic of internationally-recognized authority Dr. Elisabeth Kubler-Ross, who will speak at 7:30 p.m. Saturday at St. Elizabeth Medical Center. The author of "On Death and Dying" will answer questions after her lecture. Cost is $40. Those interested in further information should contact Paula Nicolet, at St. Joseph's Hospital in Highland, at 1-654-7421, extension 249.

It's time to put a little light on the "light bill?"

It's a lot more than lights, now.

The average IP residential customer is using 10 times more electricity than in 1940 and paying only 3¢ more per kilowatt hour for it.

Some of us still refer to it as the "light bill." And, many years ago, that's mainly what it was for: electric light.

Not any more. With the wide variety of time-saving and labor-saving electric appliances we've added around the house, we've also increased our electric usage ten times over.

Remarkably, we're paying only a few pennies more per kilowatt hour for electric service than the previous generation paid for mainly illumination.

Over the years, the cost of electric service has gone up. But compared to food costs and the general rise in the cost of living, electricity from Illinois Power is still one of your best household bargains.

"COME GROW WITH US!"

Little interest in Madison revenue sharing use

By DONNA KIMBLE
of the Press-Record

The distribution of anticipated Revenue sharing funds for the city of Madison, did not create much interest from the city's residents, as only two people attended the public hearing Tuesday night.

Alderman Thomas Gordon, who also is the chairman of the finance committee, presided at the session and requested suggestions from the people and other councilmen as to what they feel could be done with the funds, estimated to amount to $44,000, this year. Last year, the city received $54,000, which was less than the previous year's $70,000. Some of the money this year was used for recreation facilities, the purchase of two police cars and repairs on various buildings, leaving a balance of $18,478. Michael Macek, fire chief, announced during the public hearing that he and Casper Nghoghian, city attorney, have been negotiating with SCA Services to reopen the Chain of Rocks landfill, owned by the city of Madison.

Macek said the two factions arrived at a lease to benefit Madison, whereby the city could dump 1,025 cubic yards of trash a month at a landfill between Madison and East St. Louis, free for two years with an additional two-year extension if SCA could use the Chain of Rocks location, and had not closed the project by that time. There will be a fee if there is any excess over the agreed amount of 1,025 yards, Macek said.

"We chose the location nearest Madison to save gas and time," Macek explained.

When the council convened at its regular time, the aldermen approved the lease and Mayor Mike Sasyk said, "Although we did not receive any money through this program the city of Madison will save by not paying out funds for disposal."

In a continuing effort to rid the city of derelict buildings and abandoned houses, Vasil Gravitte, acting building inspector, submitted a list of real estate in question and its disposition at the present time.

Some of the houses are being renovated and several are in legal process of being condemned, according to the report. Also, the councilmen discussed cutting weeds on empty lots and deserted buildings to eliminate the unsightly areas, then putting a lien against the property to recoup the cost of labor.

Other business, Don Reeves, chairman of the purchasing committee, submitted a proposal for a new insurance program for all city employees.

Reeves said his committee, the finance committee and city department heads have been meeting and discussing four bids for the insurance plan and finally chose one from Ohio State Life, which they feel will benefit the employees better than any other program.

The plan provides $10,000 life and medical care at a cost of $3,428 per month, covering all city employees, regardless of previous illnesses or medical treatment.

Approval was granted by the aldermen with the stipulation that an agent of the insurance company meet with the council one more time to clear up any questions regarding coverage. If an agreeable contract is approved coverage will become effective on Aug. 1, the mayor explained.

Aldermen accepted the resignation of Fireman Danny E. Jones and approved a recommendation that Mike Foley, a cadet with the fire department, be promoted to fireman, since he has completed all training, including Emergency Medical Technician (EMT).

They also accepted the resignation of Ray Kleisler, Fireman Officer and appointed Robert Smith to fill the vacancy.

John Bellico, city clerk, read the 1982 valuation and breakdown of the tax extension for the city of Madison, submitted by Miss Evelyn Bowles, county clerk. The report listed valuation to be $14,928,236 and the extension amounted to $148,934. A breakdown of the funds is: Liability Insurance-134 rate extended to $20,003; police pension-1675 rate extended to $25,004; library-1206 rate to $18,003; playground and recreation -0724 or $10,088; and municipal retirement (EMRP)-0525 rate, extended $75,014.

A letter from Madison County Community Development listed allocations of Emergency Jobs Bill Funds in the amount of $47,500 for street improvements of Alton, Highland and McCambridge and $50,000 for a new roof in the Industrial Park. Aldermen approved payment of $22,350 for monthly bills and also gave Judy Donaldson, comptroller, approval to pay bills totaling $13,221 for the David Connolly Alpha Shopping Center from Industrial Revenue funds.

Comparing the state tax increase proposals

SPRINGFIELD

STATE REP. SAM WOLF

No, the governor will not get his way on the income tax increase. That appears to be the consensus of opinions of legislators in both the House and the Senate, from both Republicans and Democrats.

Indeed, an income tax proposal may pass. But it won't be the permanent proposal of Governor Thompson, or the amount of revenue which he originally proposed.

I believe we can expect either a one-year or a two-year proposal which raises enough revenue to pay the Illinois debts and restore necessary programs to the 1983 funding levels.

To date, four proposals have been put forth: the governor's proposal; a senate version of the governor's proposal; a proposal offered by the Illinois Federation of Illinois, and a Policy Committee proposal offered by House

Republicans.

Briefly, the proposals would do the following: — Governor's proposal — raises individual income tax by 1.5 percent and corporate taxes by 1.6 percent. This is a permanent increase which would raise 1.5 billion dollars in revenue. The ratio between individual and corporate income taxes is 7 to 5, while the Constitution states that it be 5 to 5 ratio must be maintained. The proposal contains no property tax relief.

— Taxpayer's Federation of Illinois — This tax proposal contains both a permanent and temporary component. The permanent portion would raise personal income tax by 0.5 percent and corporate income tax by 0.6 percent. The temporary two-year proposal would raise additional revenues through a 0.2 percent increase in personal income tax and a 0.4 percent increase in corporate taxes for 1984. The proposal contains no property tax relief measures, but does maintain the 8.5 ratio.

— Republican Policy Committee proposal — is a temporary income tax proposal only. It raises personal income tax by 0.5 percent and corporate income tax by 0.8 percent for one year only, retroactive to January of 1983. This would raise $223 million in revenue in 1984, but has no adjustments for revenue after that period of time. The bill does maintain the 8.5 ratio, has property tax relief measures, and makes an additional $100 million in cuts from the March budget. However, where those cuts are to be made was not specified.

What does all this mean? To begin with, the state owes $337 million in debts. In addition, $350 million which the state previously received from the federal government is no longer available. So more than $68 million dollars is earmarked not to fund education or mental health, but to pay debts and cover expenses previously covered through federal funds.

I have observed deliberations of the Appropriations Committee for the last three months. In that period of time, I have seen the different agencies come to the committee with budgets that could best withstand additional scrutiny. A number of spending practices of this state, outside the expenditures for education, mental health and other necessary services, are questionable and could be pared.

I have some real concerns that — despite the governor's threats and despite the cuts the governor has made in education and mental health in order to make his point clear that a tax increase is needed — we, as a state, have still not done the necessary things to bring government spending under control. Specifically, we have not adequately addressed the contractual services, in addition to personnel services, but paring the administrative functions of the agencies down to a reasonable rate.

So, the debate continues. Do we really need a tax increase? If so, what type of increase and how much?

Soon a definite proposal will come before the House. I, and many legislators, have heard from many sincerely concerned organizations and constituents. I would invite any and all of the constituents in the 11th District to make their views known, not only to me, but to the governor, the lieutenant governor, the secretary of state and other legislators in the legislative and representative districts.

Says Madison, in part, added to delay in clearing one lot

In response to a statement,

"The owner believes the city should haul away the debris and fill the lot," made at the last Madison City Council meeting, the owner of the real estate in question, Mrs. James (Debby) Pribble, said she was aware she was responsible for the project but was told "different stories by city employees, which caused a delay in clearing the lot at 2008 Harris St."

The developer house at 2008 Harris St. is in the city limits of Madison and the Pribbles home, next door, is not, according to Mrs. Pribble. She and her husband purchased the older dwelling with intentions of having it razed and the lot cleared, but with the property in the city limits of Madison, the city might be able to help.

John Duko, building inspector for Madison, said Pribbles the city of Madison could possibly do something to help them in clearing the area, and later, told Mrs. Pribble the only thing he could suggest was the city might be able to haul away the debris but they (the Pribbles) would have to pay $25 to dump the trash, they relate.

The Pribbles talked to Madison Mayor Mike Sasyk, who confirmed the problems as he knew them, but could not say if Duko had agreed to the hauling, since Duko is on vacation. The mayor said he wanted to talk with Duko before confirming any hauling proposition.

Mrs. Pribble did talk to two men, sent to her on Duko's suggestion, and they gave her an estimate of $199 to tear down the house and take whatever material they could use. They also were to haul away the leftover material and fill the basement but never came back, according to Mrs. Pribble.

"This frustration has been awful," Mrs. Pribble said. "We want to clear away the mess and landscape the lot to beautify our home and the neighborhood but we have limited funds and cannot seem to reach anyone who is willing to help."

"The city cannot take on the responsibility of tearing down homes and hauling away the debris when the owners can possibly afford the project," Mayor Sasyk explained.

The Pribbles couple has been in contact with another man who has agreed to complete the job at a reasonable cost, Mrs. Pribble said. "We hope this will clear up the entire problem," she added.

Man hurt, charged DUI after accidents

Everett L. Gill, 50, of Fairmont City, was injured at 4:35 p.m. Monday when his station wagon struck a chain link fence at the Lakeside Driving Range on Route 1 and overturned. Paramedics removed him from the vehicle and he was taken to St. Elizabeth Medical Center, according to Illinois State Police.

Gill was the same driver who allegedly was involved in two other accidents immediately before his vehicle crashed, Granite City Police said. He faces two counts of driving under the influence of alcohol, among other charges.

Officers were told by witnesses that a man in a red station wagon made a right turn from the inside lane of 21st Street onto the south side of Route 1, traveling south at high speed, and drove his vehicle into the rear of a car operated by Hettick L. Carr, 23, of Belleville, which was halted at a traffic light.

The impact pushed the Carr auto into the rear of a tractor-trailer truck owned by Ruan Co. of Wood River, and driven by Charles A. Butler, 51, of Warrington, Mo., which also was stopped at the lights.

Gill allegedly backed up his vehicle, but found himself pinned in place. At that point, a Granite City man reached inside Gill's wagon and attempted to obtain the ignition key, but was verbally threatened and pulled away from the man.

Reportedly bleeding from a head injury, Gill then drove over the curb and fled west on 20th Street, apparently turning into Park Avenue.

The Fairmont City man's vehicle allegedly skidded through a stop sign on Park Avenue and collided with an auto operated by Carol S. Tartt, 2139 Monroe St., who was driving north on 21st Street. Gill again allegedly fled the scene, causing other vehicles to leave the road at 21st and Sherman, witnesses alleged. Gill then drove east on Route 162 until his vehicle flipped over at the golf driving range.

When officers checked at the medical center, wanting to talk with the driver, a staff member reported that Gill was unconscious and unable to speak.

Later, a blood alcohol test was taken and Gill was charged by Illinois State and Granite City police with driving under the influence of alcohol. He also was charged with leaving the scene of an accident, reckless driving and two counts of driving while his license was revoked.

$2,443 BURGLARY AT FARMER'S MARKET

A total of $2,443 was missing in a burglary reported during the weekend at Farmer's Market, East 23rd Street and Nameok Road. The cash was taken from a building, place inside a building. A padlock had been removed to gain access to the interior.

SAVING THE LORD'S PRAYER

I cannot say "Our" — if I live in a water-tight spiritual compartment.
I cannot say "Father" — if I do not demonstrate the relationship in my daily life.
I cannot say "which art in Heaven" — if I am so occupied with the earth that I am laying up no treasure there.

I cannot say "hallowed be thy name" — if I, who am called by His name, am not holy.

I cannot say "Thy kingdom come" — if I am not doing all in my power to hasten its coming.

I cannot say "Thy will be done" — if I am questioning, resentful or disobedient to His will for me.

I cannot say "On earth, as it is in Heaven" — if I am not prepared to devote my life here to His service.

I cannot say "give us this day our daily bread" — if I am living on past experience or if I am an under the counter shopper.

I cannot say "forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us" — if I harbour a grudge against anyone.

I cannot say "deliver us from evil" — if I am not prepared to fight in the spiritual realm with the weapon of prayer.

I cannot say "Thine is the Kingdom" — if I do not accord the King the disciplined obedience of a loyal subject.

I cannot say "Thine is the glory" — if I am seeking glory for myself.

I cannot say "Forever and ever" — if my horizon is bounded by the things of time.

WORD OF LIFE TABERNACLE

LINDA THOMPSON RECEIVES PROMOTION

A former Granite City resident has been promoted to advertising sales manager at radio station KARN, Little Rock, Ark., it was announced.

Linda Thompson, 29, daughter of Mrs. Dorothy Thompson of Granite City, received the promotion recently. She had been an account executive for KKYK since September, 1980.

Previously, she worked in television as a sales assistant for John Blair and Co., St. Louis. She graduated from Granite City High School in 1972.

EMB Circle hears Mrs. Norma Rains

Mrs. Norma Rains presented the lesson at the final meeting of the winter season of the Every Member Busy Class of Nameoiki United Methodist Church.

For her topic, Mrs. Rains chose "The Greatest Salesman in the World." The group met in the home of Corinne Dawson with opening prayer offered by Mrs. Helene Bischoff. Plans for the bazaar workshops were finalized and the members agreed to disband until Aug. 23 when they will resume sessions at the home of Mrs. Bischoff.

Closing prayer was given by Mrs. Virginia Carroll followed by refreshments served by the hostess to those named and to Gail Klee, Maxine Medders, Luan Briner, Alma Cowan, and a guest, Clarence Queen.

MATHEMATICS DEGREE TO CINDY JACKOVICH

Spring 1983 graduates of Eureka College, Eureka, Ill., included Cindy Jackovich, daughter of Mrs. Barbara Hall of Granite City.

The new graduate received the degree of bachelor of arts in mathematics. The commencement speaker was Dr. Daniel D. Gilbert, president of the college.

Rev. and Mrs. Chester Parker

Basket dinner to honor Rev. Parker

The Rev. Chester R. Parker, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church, 3000 Washington Ave., will end his pastorate at the church, June 26, and will be honored at a congregational old fashioned basket dinner in the church fellowship hall, following the worship service.

Rev. Parker came from Eastern Tennessee to assume the duties of minister at the church in December 1978, and has served since that time.

He has pastored churches for 42 years in Arkansas, Tennessee and Illinois and is presently serving as moderator of the Madison County Baptist Association. The minister is retiring on disability due to his eye sight, according to Earl Phelps, chairman of deacons.

Through the years Rev. Parker has been assisted by his wife, Margaret, at the various churches he served.

The Parkers will remain in the area to assist at the church and continue to serve Madison County Baptist Association through September then they will move to their home in Nashville, Tenn.

Protestant Welfare to distribute food, shelter aid under federal grant

The National Food and Shelter Program awarded Madison County $137,170 in early June. A local board, comprised of representatives from private voluntary organizations in the county selected three organizations to disburse these funds by township.

The Protestant Welfare Association has the responsibility of disbursing $60,140 to residents of Chouteau, Edwardsville, Collinsville, Nameoiki, Granite City and Venice Townships under the following criteria:

Applicants must have an unemployment card issued since June 1, 1981, and Protestant Welfare will disburse food vouchers up to a maximum of $50 in exchange for a current receipt for payment to a utility (not telephone) company or a pharmacy.

Applicants from these townships must apply at the Protestant Welfare Association Office, 2052 Edison Ave. Protestant Welfare will take applications only on Mondays and Tuesdays between the hours of 9 a.m. and noon and 1 to 4 p.m., beginning July 5.

Convention in St. Louis set

A series of 104 district conventions of Jehovah's Witnesses will be held throughout the country during this month and July, according to an announcement by the Watchtower Bible & Tract Society of New York.

Walter Schafer of the Granite City congregation said that 94 members from the Granite City area will attend the meet at Checker-dome in St. Louis.

Dale Nelson of Hillsboro, Mo., convention manager, said, "There is genuine concern for the future. The increasing dialogue on the need for control of nuclear weapons, threat of war, terrorism and national divisions make many people wonder if world peace is possible."

"This convention will stress looking in a new direction for the solution of these problems. The program will review how and when these things will be ultimately achieved," he added.

NEW SALEMAN PLANS SPECIAL SUNDAY

New Salem Baptist Church, 1349 Klein Ave., Venice, will host a special day of services Sunday, June 26, according to the Rev. John H. Williams, pastor.

Theme for the program will be Friend and Family Day and will begin with the increasing service featuring a guest speaker, Rev. Henry added.

During the afternoon a social and fellowship time will be enjoyed by members and of congregation and guests.

Gateway Nationals Friday

The American Hot Rod Association's 1983 Grand American Series of Professional Drag Racing reaches its midpoint with the Gateway Nationals at St. Louis International Raceway this weekend, June 24, 25, and 26.

This season's race for the World Championships in five professional and six sportsman eliminators are the closest in many years. Racing begins on Friday at 5 p.m., 10 a.m. on Saturday and 11 a.m. on Sunday, for the championships.

In Top Fuel, eight time AHRA World Champion, "Big Daddy" Don Garlits, once again rests in first place. Four hundred points back is Texan Gene Snow. The "Snowman" defeated Garlits in the finals at the AHRA Spring Nationals in Tulsa, OK. This was the first loss in AHRA competition this season for the Florida native Garlits.

In the Fuel Funny Car ranks a three way brawl has developed between Tom McEwen, Don Prudhomme, and John Collins. Prudhomme started off the season with a win and the points lead at Tucson. Then John Collins took his

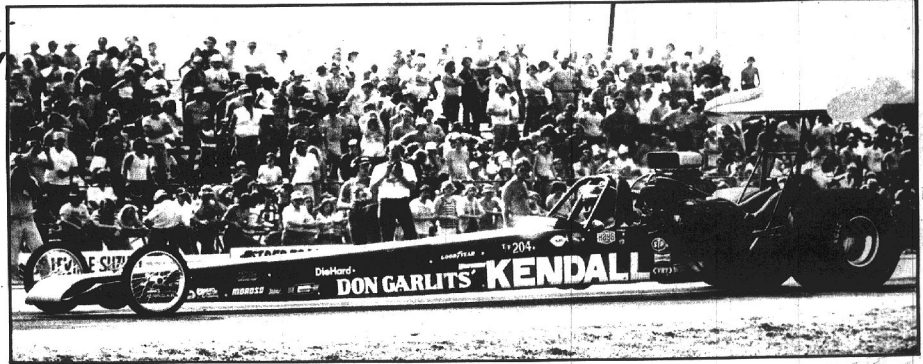

"ICV Stereo" sponsored mount to the winner's circle at San Antonio and surpassed "The Snake's" points total for the lead.

Then last month, "The Coors Corvette" of Tom McEwen bested arch-rival Prudhomme in the finals at Tulsa to lead the field at present. Now the score card reads McEwen 1,100; Prudhomme 850; Collins 500; and John Force 800 points.

The three remaining pro categories are even more hotly contested. Pro Stock is a dead even tie between Chuck Aronson and Benny Flowers. Chuck Nuytten is in third place. In the pro alcohol ranks, Don Cooper holds a slight lead with 800 points while Jim Haynes and Porter Donn are breathing down his neck with 700 apiece.

In the pro alcohol flopper category, Bill "Smoky Bear" Wendt leads with 700 points. Jon Barrett, George Cambra, and Richard Smith are all tied for second with 600 points.

St. Louis International Raceway is located south of Granite City on Illinois Route 203 and Interstate 55-70.

BIG DADDY. Don "Big Daddy" Garlits is one of several celebrity racers who will compete this weekend during the annual Gateway Nationals at St. Louis International Raceway. Garlits joins such greats as Top Fuel greats as Shirley Muldowney and Gene "The Snowman" Snow. Racing action begins this Friday at 5 p.m. and continues Saturday and Sunday. (Press-Record Photo by Alan L. Gerstenecker)

In Legion Baseball Ailing, ill positioned Triplets lead District 22

By ROGER KRAMER
of the Press-Record

GRANITE CITY — In what place in the standings would you expect a team which consisted of the following:

—A four-man pitching staff filled with four sore arms.

—Infielders, pitchers and outfielders forced to play out of position.

—And a bench consisted of two players, and that's a good night.

You would expect that team to be in last place, right. Well, the Tri-City American Legion baseball is an exception.

Despite sore arms, fielders in the wrong positions, and lack of depth, the Triplets are comfortably in first place in the District 22 North Division with a 9-3 record.

To top things off, the Triplets increased their record by three wins in only three days. Monday, Tri-City pounded Troy 14-9 at Granite City. Tuesday, the Triplets won on the road at Bethalto 12-8, but Wednesday's win was the best of all. Tri-City beat Collinsville 7-3 at home.

Many of the players on the Collinsville Legion team were on the Class AA runner-up Kahoks this spring, and the win established the Triplets as a team to beat in District 22.

Hitting has been the reason why the Triplets have been so devastating in the league.

"If we hit the ball, we can play with anyone in the league," John Linhart of the Triplets said. "Everybody wants to win. We have a lot of good hitters and pretty good fielders who can adjust to anyplace they are placed."

Linhart should know. He was one of those players who had to adjust. Linhart is the Triplets' regular right fielder, but against Collinsville, he was placed at second base and played an error-free game.

Pitchers Dan Whitsell and Jim Burton, who did not play in the outfield during the high school season, are now outfielders. Rod Hessler, a first baseman for Granite City North last season, had to play at third base.

Only two everyday players, catcher Daren DeFew and center fielder Dave Shelch, have been able to get by playing at only one position this season.

"We really have a lot of talented ball players on the team," said Triplets Rick Daily. "They'll play everywhere, and they always give 100 percent. We might give up a lot of runs and errors, but we usually get a lot of runs ourselves."

"As long as we have nine guys out there, we'll do alright," Linhart said. "All he (Manager Larry Corey) wants us to do is go out and play the best we can. He knows we'll make some errors because we are out of position, but he lets us play hard."

Wednesday was a perfect example of how the Triplets operate. Tri-City spotted Collinsville three first-inning runs on four singles by Brent Holten, Dean Kaseley, Ed Keturaskus and Randy Nelson.

In the fifth inning, Corey reached on an error and scored on Kevin Patterson. Patterson reached on an error. Daily singled home Shelch, and Vince Mitchell hit a grounder through the legs of Collinsville second baseman Allen Smith to bring Patterson and Shelch home to tie the game.

Shelch also led off the fourth inning with single and scored on Patterson's double. Patterson then scored on Linhart's single.

In the fifth inning, Corey reached on an error and scored on Burton's two-out single. Patterson doubled and scored his third run in the sixth inning on Corey's fielder's choice. Collinsville tried to go for a double play on the grounder, but Daily took out Kaseley at second to break up the double play and allow the run to score.

Daily, who had a sore arm going into the game, pitched the entire game. He gave up seven hits, struck out nine and walked three.

Jack Parker, who not only manages the Collinsville team but was an assistant baseball coach at North, got a rude homecoming at the hands of the Triplets.

"I wanted both teams to play well, but we didn't play well. We made some errors on some routine plays which we should have had, but that was because we were playing out of position."

Parker's son, Marc Parker, was hit in the groin by a foul ball by Collinsville pitcher Tom Lewis in the first inning. Damon Buehler was injured during pregame warmups by a grounder. Neither played in the field for Collinsville.

The players who hurt Collinsville the most were Patterson (3-for-4) and Shelch (2-for-4). Both played for Parker and head coach Bob Stegemeier at North.

Tri-City also hurt Troy and Bethalto on Monday and Tuesday respectively.

Tri-City had four home runs against Troy, Shelch, Brian Levin, Daily and Whitsell all hit home runs for the Triplets.

Tri-City scored 11 runs in the first three innings for a cushion. Although Troy tried to come back in the later innings, the Triplets' lead was too much to overcome.

Levin was 4-for-5 with a double in addition to his home run. Shelch and Linhart were 3-for-5, and Whitsell was 2-for-3.

Levin also was the winning pitcher, going six innings. Corey and Daily finished up the game for Levin.

It was nearly more of the same with Bethalto. Although there was only one home run, a blast by coach, the clutch hits continued to come. The Triplets had 12 hits Tuesday.

Shelch, Linhart and Patterson all picked up two RBIs. Patterson picked up three hits. Linhart's other hit was a double, and Shelch and Mitchell both contributed two hits.

The Triplets, 10-4 overall, host Fairview Heights 6 p.m. Friday at North. Saturday, the Triplets travel to Highland for an 8 p.m. game. After that game, Tri-City doesn't play again until July 1.

"We're leaning three out of four games in the league now, and this is good," Corey said. "We've been hitting from the top to the bottom of the line-up."

GC grapplers compete in Freestyle competition

BETHALTO — At least four high school wrestlers from Granite City, both present and past, will compete this Thursday, June 23, at Civic Memorial High School as the Illinois-Missouri All-Stars take on place winners from the Colorado Freestyle Wrestling Championships.

According to Larry Kristoff,

Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville wrestling coach and meet director, Granite City's Colin Davis, Mark Whitaker, Bruce Widel and Jon Frangoulis will represent Granite City in the Freestyle wrestling.

Davis will wrestle at 119 pounds while Whitaker, Widel and Frangoulis will compete at 154, 185 and 190 pounds respectively. Action is scheduled to get underway Thursday at 7:30 p.m. Donations for the evening will be $1.50 for adults and $1 for student.

For a complete list of wrestlers expected to compete in Thursday's class, contact L. Kristoff, by calling (618) 377-5757.

Paddlers' teams down Wedgewood

GRANITE CITY — Both Paddlers' Swim Club swim and diving teams were winners in the first competition of the season Tuesday at the local club. The Paddlers swimmers defeated Wedgewood of Florissant, Mo., 4-0 to 182, while the diving team bettered their Missouri opponents 54-13.

In the 74-event swimming competition, Celeste Sonnenberg's swimmers took first place in 58 events.

Gayle McCormick's diving squad dominated, to say the least. Paddlers' divers picked first places in each of the eight age groups and surrendered only three of the eight second places.

This Saturday, June 25, Paddlers athletes will again take to the water as they host eight teams in relay competition. Warm ups begin at 8 a.m. with competition beginning at 9 a.m.

Warfield was satisfied because his squad returned home with a 500 record, winning one and losing one but disappointed when the other three games were rained out.

Tuesday night at Clarinda, Iowa, Warfield's team avenged a 6-3 loss suffered Monday by trouncing the Iowans, 10-6, Tuesday evening before an estimated 4,000 fans. The Clarinda Athletics, winner of the National Baseball congress' national championship at Wichita, Kan., in 1981, drew their players from all over the United States.

The victory over Iowa gave Spanky's a 16-5 season's record and ended their four-game losing streak.

Edwardsville's Tim Gamble, who also starred for the just completed SIUE Cougars winning campaign, continued his red-hot hitting against Clarinda in the final game of the trip. He drove in three runs with a single, double and a four-bagger, said Pat Peterson, business manager of the 7-Up/Spanky's. "Tim's home run was a big blast to center field. It's deeper than that at Cougar Field or Busch Memorial Stadium." Cougar Field is 408 and Busch is 415.

In the final game on the road trip, Warfield called on his staff's ace, Jerry Vitale (3-0) and Stan Fabre (now 3-2). Vitale started and went four frames. Fabre, the Louisiana college ace (Nichols State), came on in fifth and gained the victory.

With their loss, the Iowa nine dropped to 18-6 for the season.

Other 7-Up/Spanky's players with hot bats in the road trip finale were shortstop Doug Peters, first sacker John Vitale, catcher Jay Hoffman and third baseman Jackie Gaugher.

Peters collected a single, double and a triple. Vitale went 4-for-5 with two RBIs and Baugher and Hoffman each drove in one run.

After its day off Wednesday, the 7-Up/Spanky's will return to the baseball wars with a schedule of games that would tax a major league mound staff.

Tonight's game at Hope Park begins at 7:45 p.m. Tomorrow night at Alton's Gordon Moore Park, they'll take on one of Illinois' strongest semi-pro teams, the Springfield, Ill., Steelmen at 7:30 p.m.

Saturday afternoon, it'll be doubleheader against Mt. Greenwood of Chicago on the SIUE field with action starting at 1:30 p.m. The same teams will tangle in a single game Sunday at Hope Park.

Scramble golf tournament to benefit QACAS

A two-man scramble golf tournament, to benefit the American Cancer Society, is scheduled for Sunday, July 10, at Granite City's Arlington Golf Course.

The tournament, which is sponsored by the Quad-City American Cancer Society, is open to both men and women and is designed so everyone has a chance to win, regardless of their ability to play golf, said Charles King, spokesman for the QACAS.

The entry fee of $25 per person entitles the golfer to 18 holes, and the opportunity to win one of numerous prizes.

Interested persons should send their name and address and phone number with entry fee to Jim Pohlman, 81, Shirwin Drive in Granite City. Persons with inquiries about the tournament may contact Pohlman at 931-0612 or Tim Thompson at 432-3187. Reservations must be made by July 1.

Soccer team seeks financial assistance

The Granite City Steelers soccer team, a group of 11 and 12 year old boys, has been invited to the International Youth Soccer Tournament by the Liga Colegial de Futbol Soccer Infantil, A.C. of Mexico City, Mexico. The tournament will be held the week of July 11.

The team has independently sponsored itself for the past three years, but is seeking donations for the Mexico City trip this summer.

To help defray cost of the trip, which is estimated at 10,100, the team has planned various yard sales, car washes and other fund raisers.

To assure that the trip is a financial success, the team is requesting donations to help defray the cost to parents.

Persons wishing to contribute, may make checks payable to the Granite City Steeler Soccer Team and mail them to Michael R. Vincent (coach), 2425 Benton Street, Granite City.

Brett Bjorkman, 14, was omitted from the list of Granite City players on the Illinois Select Under 15's soccer team in Thursday's Press-Record. We at the Press-Record regret the errors.

Crone readies for TAC Meet

Gary Crone, of Granite City, picked up four first place finishes last weekend in the Ozark Junior Olympic Regional Track Meet held in Poplar Bluff, Missouri.

Crone, a 14-year-old who attended Grigby Junior High last year, won the 400 meters, the long jump, the triple jump and the high jump. It was the first time in the 15-year history of the regional that an individual has won four firsts. In addition to his first place performances, Crone was presented the "Outstanding Performance Award."

In the 400 meters, Crone posted a time of :54.9, while Another championship team?

By AL BARNES
for the Press-Record

Ever since I started writing these feature stories about the great athletic teams who played for Granite City, I have been told, mostly by real Old Timers, that we had another high school basketball team which won the prestigious Illinois State Championship.

That is, in addition, to the one that, led by All-American collegiate star (with the U. of Illinois Whiz Kids circa 46 though 48) and later with the Boston Celtics, Andy Phillip.

Andy and his buddies won the coveted Illinois basketball crown in the spring of 1940.

But, all these Old Timers who either wrote and spoke to me out in Public, insisted that Granite City had won "it all" previously.

So, after checking it back through our (the Press-Record's) micro-film files, I finally unearthed what they were talking about.

It was the Granite City High basketball team for the 1915-16 school year ... and And, Granite City did make it to the state but was eliminated in their first round game in the Field of 16, now called, of course, the Sweet Sixteen.

Like now, though, the first round games were played at other sites other than at the University of Illinois drab and dusty Huff gym which seated only 5,000 fans.

That first-round game was played at Centralia, then as now, a hot bed of high school basketball. They lost to the eventual state champion Joliet High team, 22-43. Enroute to their shot as the state tourney, however, they posted three impressive victories.

That loss to Joliet, incidentally, was Friday, March 10, 1916.

And, for the record, their victories were:

A 23-4 victory over Greenville, a 26-21 win over Nashville and cliff-hanger over Salem, 22-17.

Other schools in the field of 16 were: Decatur, East Aurora, Robinson, Canton, Moline, Arthur, Carbondale, Bloomington, Rockford, Springfield, and DuQuoin. Sadly, DuQuoin was disqualified for having used an over-age player. Bloomington won the championship that year.

The three schools representing Chicago weren't listed in the Press-Record.

In attempting to identify the members of the squad, I could find no one whose memories went back that far. However, the Press-Record listed the following players on the squad. But, it was almost enough to make one cry, the practice then, was just to give the player's initial and last name.

Here they are: E. Robertson, J. A. Nelson, R. Lewis, E. Holdinghaus, C. Watson, F. Butler, J. Reynolds, T. Vaughn, E. Pittman, W. Miller, R. Berals and J. Hayden.

They were a fine looking bunch of young men, huh!

Pierce named to USOC team

Tony Pierce, of Granite City, is one of 72 outstanding soccer players in the United States, who have been selected to participate in the U.S. Olympic Committee's National Sports Festival V, to be held June 24-July 3 in Colorado Springs, the United States Soccer Federation has announced.

Pierce, a junior at the University of Connecticut, is one of two goalkeepers from the North Regional selected to the squad.

The soccer portion of the 33-sport National Sports

Festival will be represented by four regional teams: East, North, South, and West. Each team will consist of 18 players who satisfy Olympic eligibility requirements. The teams, from which the nucleus of the 1984 U.S. Olympic Team will be drawn, were selected in state and regional tryouts by USSF National Staff Coaches Nick Zlatar (East), Paul Malik (North), Jay Miller (South), and Bernabe Andeherhan (West).

The Sports Festival competition will be used primarily for identification and training of future Olympians. The games will be staged at the United States Air Force Academy complex on June 29 and 30, and July 2 and 3. The four regional teams will engage in round-robin competition for gold, silver and bronze medals, with the medal games scheduled for July 3.

Nelson's hosts tourney

Lord Nelson's Sports Complex on Pontoon Road will be sponsoring a dart tournament every Thursday at 7:30 p.m.

Registration for the weekly tournament begins at 6:30 p.m. There's a $3 entry fee.

Interested persons may get more information by calling 931-4497.

WHOPPER. Bob Warthen of Granite City caught a 31-pound Blue Catfish at 1 p.m. Wednesday at Sandy Lake near Pontoon Beach. Warthen used only a 8 pound test and wrestled with the fish for 25 minutes. He used a night crawler on an number 8 Eagle Hook to catch the fish. Coincidentally, Warthen was wearing the Cat hat when he brought in the fish.

RENTAL REVOLUTION

In the spirit of Independence Day, Gaslight Walk and Arlington Heights apartments and townhomes are having their own special revolution — against unreasonable rental rates. We feel you've been battling high costs and low quality long enough!

If you're looking for the finest in apartments, and at rates that won't have you waving the white flag, come to Gaslight Walk and Arlington Heights, where you're free to enjoy quality apartment living at reasonable apartment rates!

Collect $250 Cash!

Just sign a lease for any of our 1 & 2 bedroom apartments or 2 bedroom townhomes, and we'll give you $250 when you move in.

"No Security Deposit" Program

We'll waive your security deposit fee if you qualify for our special program!

Free Gifts!

Stop by and see all that our distinctive apartments and townhomes offer and we'll give you and your family a free gift to help celebrate the holiday.

The fireworks have begun so don't wait. The rental revolution ends on July 31st. Join our Independence Day celebration today, and start celebrating your independence from high rental rates, at Gaslight Walk and Arlington Heights.

LEASE - LEASE - LEASE
REGENCY LEASING & SALES, INC.
18th & Edison, Granite City
451-7706 or 877-4064
CONSIDER THE ADVANTAGES OF LEASING!
* Pay for only what you use. * Simplified tax records. * No large initial cash outlay. * Leasing does not tie up credit. * Pay with today's earnings, rather than yesterday's profits. When you lease, your leasing company is your total transportation headquarters. We have ready to go now... Four 1983 well equipped sedans.

CALL 451-7706 or 877-4064 BEFORE YOU LEASE!
We lease all American or imported cars, vans, or light duty trucks. We have a selection of late model, low mileage cars for sale with 24-month cash and 24-month lease terms.
